Location & Local Information

Cadaqués, a picturesque seaside town in Catalonia, is brimming with charm and activities to enjoy. At Casa Passeig, you'll find yourself in the heart of this delightful coastal gem, steps from its stony beaches and vibrant local culture.

Stroll through the cobblestone streets of Cadaqués, where whitewashed buildings with colorful shutters set a postcard-perfect scene. Visit the Church of Santa Maria, perched atop the town, offering panoramic views of the Mediterranean. The town's many boutiques, art galleries, and cafés are ideal for laid back exploration, making it a delight for visitors who love to wander.

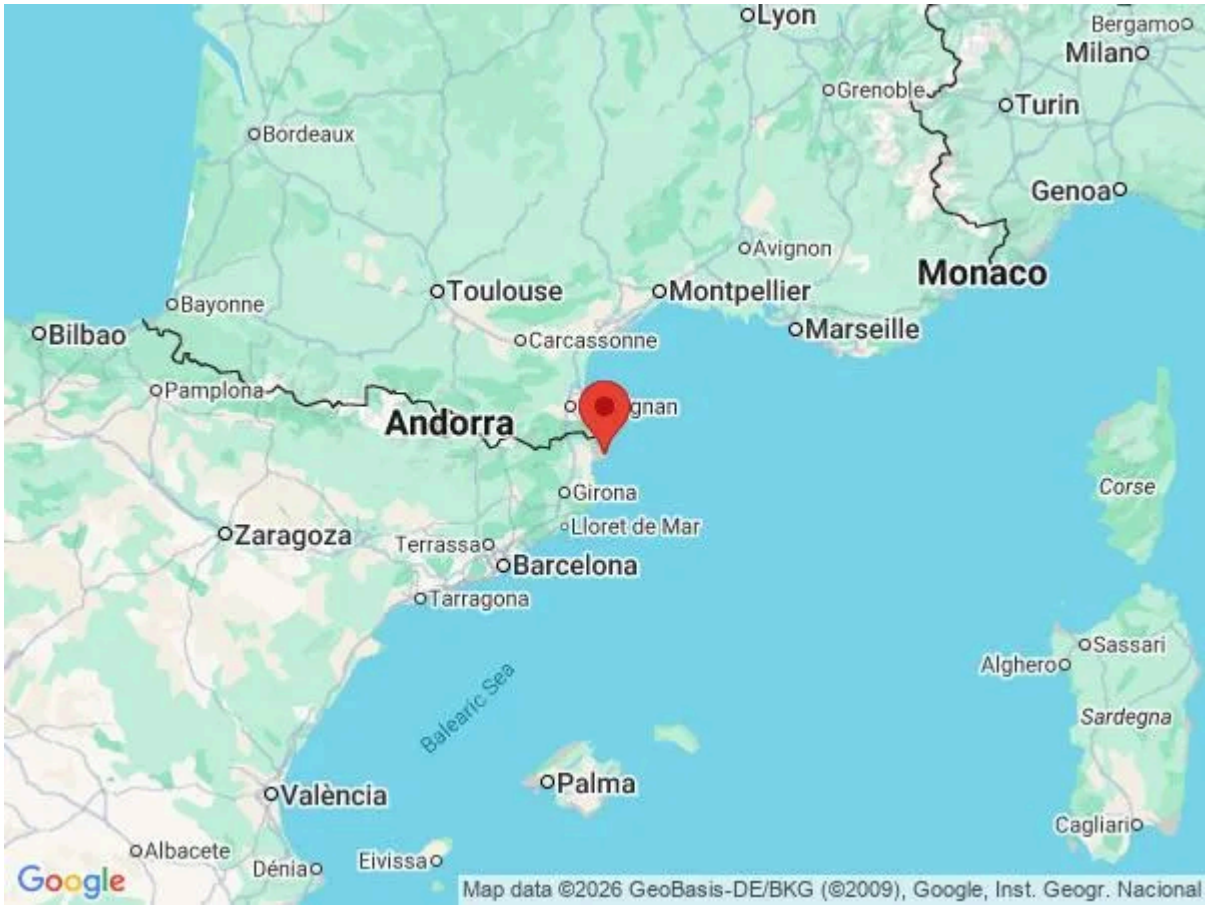

Cadaqués has long been a haven for artists, most famously Salvador Dalí. A short trip to nearby Port Lligat brings you to his former residence, the Casa-Museu Salvador Dalí, where you can experience the surrealist's life and work. The museum offers a fascinating glimpse into Dalí's eccentric world and creative genius.

Nature lovers will find plenty to enjoy at the Cap de Creus Natural Park, just a short drive away. This rugged coastal reserve is perfect for hiking, kayaking, and marveling at its dramatic landscapes, where rocky cliffs meet the shimmering Mediterranean.

Finally, savor Cadaqués' fresh seafood and Catalan cuisine at local restaurants. Many dining spots offer delicious meals of local fish and seafood, paired with stunning sea views, providing the perfect end to your day. We highly recommend the restaurant Compartir, an amazing spot tucked just behind the main road along the seafront!
