Location & Local Information

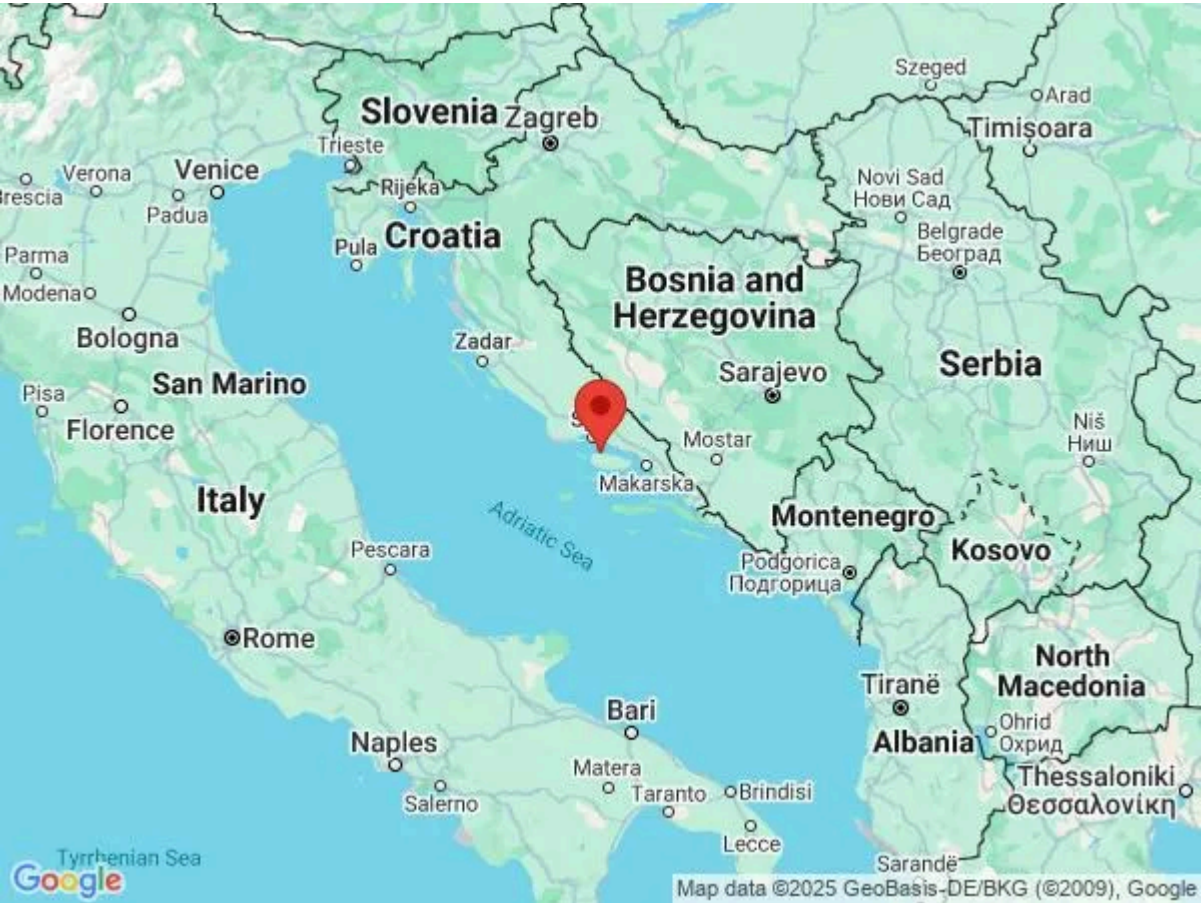

This beautiful villa is in a prime location right on the seafront in the lovely village of Mirca. Mirca itself is a little village on the popular Brac Island. It is situated five kilometres from Supetar and is distinguished with the characteristically rustic atmosphere of a little Mediterranean village. On this part of this wonderful island, there are idyllic pebble beaches with pine trees shading the edges. The beaches are perfect for all family members, as children can safely play in the shallow seawater. The proximity to Supetar makes Mirca an ideal retreat away from the busier areas whilst remaining close to the amenities and facilities they offer!

Supetar is the perfect spot for exploring the island of Brac. Supetar is the largest town on the island. The harbour is attractive for a stroll and is backed by a small network of medieval streets lined with local cafes and small shops where you can wander and meander for hours at a time!

Brac Island, the longest and most elevated island in central Dalmatia, is a unique gem waiting to be explored. Despite its proximity to Split, Brac offers a less touristy experience than the glittering islands of Hvar and Korcula. The island is a paradise for olive lovers, with over a half-million rare buhavica olive trees. And don't miss the Zlatni Rat beach, a stunning natural wonder that is a must-see on your Brac Island adventure!
