Overview

With its elegant interiors, beautiful garden and swimming pool, this air-conditioned French Riviera villa epitomises stylish living just a short walk from the heart of Saint-Tropez.

There's an air of Côte d'Azur sophistication across the open-plan living area with chic furnishings and eye-catching prints whilst the kitchen is just the right size for preparing delicious breakfasts and leisurely meals to enjoy on the terrace. Four sumptuous bedrooms await, each with their own en suite bathroom, decorated with subtle colours and pretty fabrics that add to the calming ambience of this single-storey Saint-Tropez holiday home.

From the living room, doors slide open to a gorgeous patio for al-fresco dining and relaxation or simply perch on the stools with an apéritif in hand as you admire the intimate garden through the archway. The swimming pool has been sensitively designed to blend in to its environment, perfect for cooling off after a day wandering around Saint-Tropez. Sit on the bench beneath the pergola, accompanied by the sound of trickling water, and admire the verdant plants in the immaculate grounds.

It's less than a 10-minute stroll into Saint-Tropez, one of France's most desirable destinations with its characterful old quarter, colourful houses and twice-weekly Provençal market juxtaposing high-end boutiques, upmarket restaurants and luxurious yachts in the harbour. The joy of Saint-Tropez means you are able to experience both the charm and glamour of the French Riviera.

Beyond the town centre, drive to Plage de Pampelonne for exclusive beach clubs and watersports, visit wine châteaux and vineyards near Gassin and La Croix Valmer, tour the pretty canals of Port Grimaud by boat and take a ferry across the bay towards Sainte-Maxime. Not to mention the flower-filled lanes of Ramatuelle and Grimaud with the most glorious far-reaching vistas of Saint-Tropez bay.

Location & Local Information

Villa Calme is located in a residential area of Saint-Tropez less than a 10-minute walk from the historic centre of one of the French Riviera's most desirable destinations.

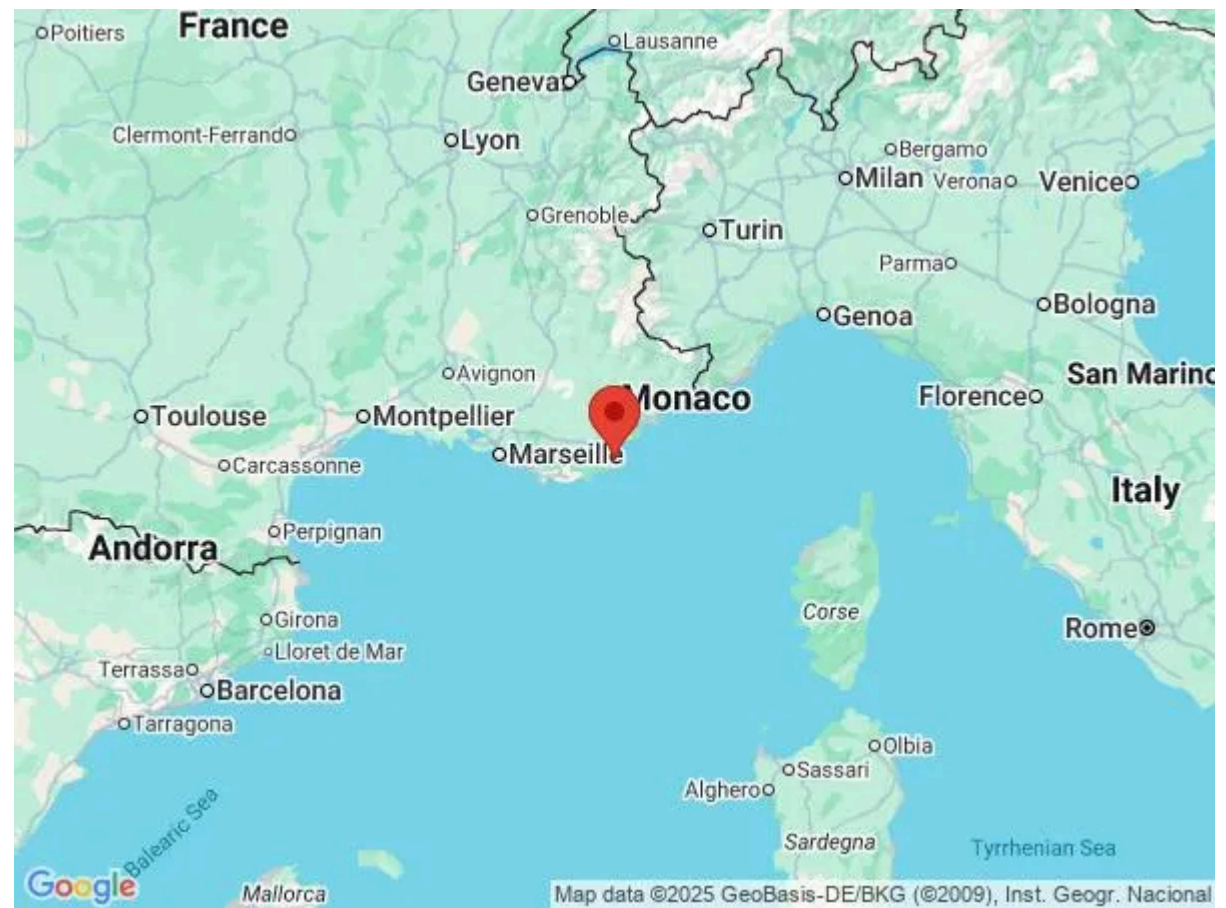

Saint-Tropez is home to a variety of restaurants from traditional bistros to high-end establishments - advanced reservations are often necessary, especially in the summer months. Stock up on groceries in one of the town's small supermarkets or drive to the area around Port Cogolin for larger hypermarkets. The twice-weekly Provençal market at Place des Lices (600m) is a wonderful way to treat yourselves to seasonal produce and regional delights.

Potter around Saint Tropez's narrow lanes coming across pretty squares and fountains, café terraces, glamorous boutiques and the bustling harbour with luxurious yachts. Experience both the glitzy vibe of the town as well as the historic charm – look out for colourful houses lining the waterfront of this former fishing village and the baroque-style church in the old quarter. Climb to the top of the historic citadel for stunning views of Saint-Tropez Bay.

Ferries depart Saint-Tropez's harbour towards Port Grimaud and Sainte-Maxime, both lovely days out, or venture further afield along the coast. Boat excursions and sight-seeing tours are a great to appreciate the beauty of the French Riviera from the sea.

Whilst there are a couple of small town beaches near Saint-Tropez, the best stretch of coastline is Plage de Pampelonne (6km) with a wide range of summer watersports as well as exclusive beach clubs such as Nikki Beach and Le Club 55.

Other activities include golf near Saint-Tropez, Beauvallon and Sainte-Maxime, the Polo Resort & Country Club De Saint-Tropez, wine-tastings at châteaux and vineyards near Gassin or La Croix Valmer, as well as walking, hiking, cycling and horse-riding opportunities by the coast and across the Côte d'Azur hinterland.

For a change of scene, drive to the trio of picture-perfect villages near Saint-Tropez – Ramatuelle, Gassin and Grimaud - for flower-filled lanes, excellent restaurants and the most beautiful views of the bay.
