Location & Local Information

Casa Enamorada, nestled in the coastal gem of Binibeca, offers a quintessential Menorca holiday experience. Around 500 meters from the stunning white sands of Binibeca Beach, the villa's location is ideal for sun-soaked relaxation and picturesque beach strolls. A short distance away, Cala Torret offers an array of dining options, with authentic Spanish restaurants, charming tapas bars, a local supermarket, and a bakery for fresh morning treats. Nearby, the iconic fishing village of Binibeca Vell is a must-see, with its charming narrow streets, whitewashed houses, and unique architecture that transports visitors back in time.

Adventure seekers can explore Menorca's coastal trails or take a boat trip to secluded coves along the island's southern shores. Located a short drive away in Cala en Porter, Cova d'en Xoroi is a stunning cliffside cave, a popular destination for sunset drinks and incredible views of the Mediterranean, often featuring live music in the evening. The island's capital Mahón, is also only around a 20-minute drive from Binibeca. You can explore its vibrant port, charming old town, and a range of museums and galleries.
