Location & Local Information

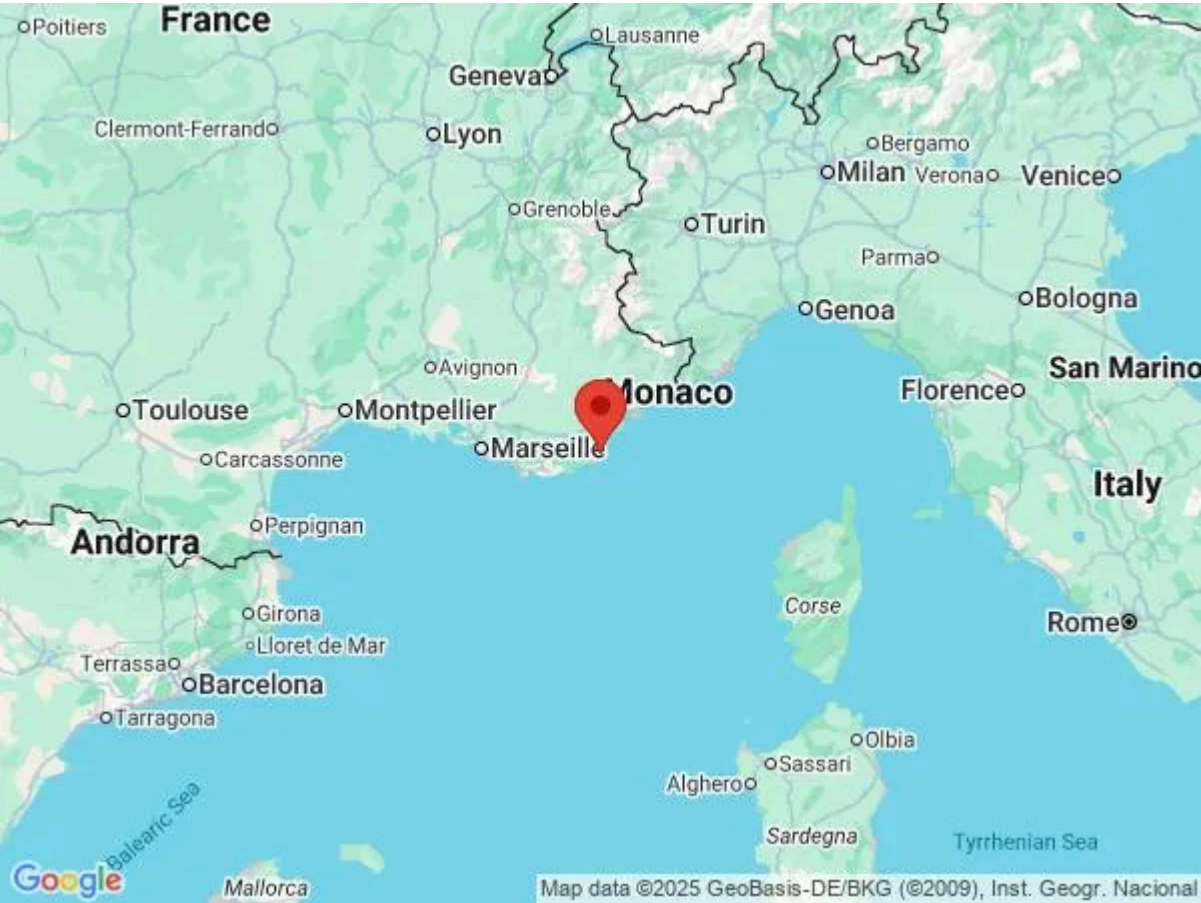

This villa enjoys a great setting within its own spacious grounds just off a country lane leading to two beaches. What's more, it's just over 3km to drive to the heart of Saint-Tropez.

Walking along the country road (no pavement), it's around 850m to a small sandy bay with shallow water and a neighbouring sailing club. In the other direction, around 1.6km away, a longer sandy beach awaits with a gorgeous beachside restaurant (seasonal opening) at the southern end. This beach is backed by pine trees, a little étang and grassy dunes – it is usually slightly less crowded than some of Saint-Tropez's other famous beaches. Le Chemin de Littoral coastal hiking route can be followed from either beach passing rugged and very beautiful landscapes.

Head to Saint-Tropez for a wonderful day out. After a morning browsing upmarket boutiques or experiencing the twice-weekly market, enjoy lunch by the harbourfront and climb the citadel for stunning views. Ferries will take you across the bay to Porto Grimaud and Sainte-Maxime to experience yet more French Riviera charm of this region.

Plage de Tahiti and its restaurants are around 5km by car or you can venture further south to Plage de Pampelonne's exclusive beachside clubs such as Nikki Beach and Le Club 55.

Other fantastic days out include the flower-filled village of Grimaud (15km) with stunning views from its hilltop setting and artistic Ramatuelle (13km). Perhaps combine a visit to picture-perfect Gassin (11.5km), one of France's 'Plus Beaux Villages', with its nearby vineyards and wineries, including the iconic Château Minuty (10km), to purchase local rosé to enjoy back on your picturesque terrace.
