Location & Local Information

Maison Tropicque is located in a residential quarter around a 15-minute walk from Places des Lices in central Saint-Tropez.

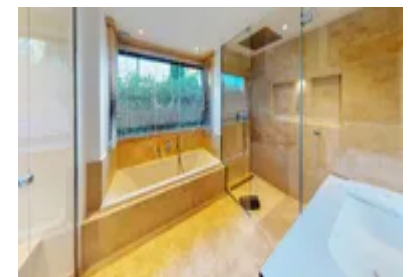

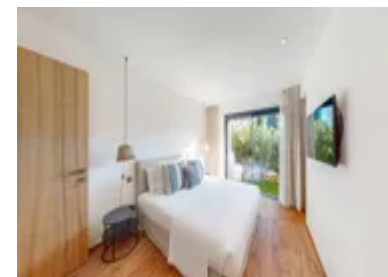

It goes without saying that Saint-Tropez is the epitome of glamour and elegance. Once a quaint fishing village, this world-renowned destination has become a playground for the rich and famous, yet it retains its irresistible charm and timeless beauty. Stroll through the cobblestone streets of the old town, where colourful shutters and fragrant blooms adorn the traditional houses. Delight your senses at Place des Lices, a lively square that hosts the twice-weekly Provençal market offering local delicacies, artisanal goods, and fresh produce, then climb to the top of the citadel for incredible views.

Whilst Saint-Tropez features a couple of small town beaches, sunseekers should venture to the long and pristine Plage de Pampelonne (6km), one of France's most famous beaches, perfect for water sports and exclusive dining at beachside restaurants and clubs.

Beyond Saint-Tropez lies a treasure trove of picturesque villages waiting to be discovered. Drive to Ramatuelle (11km), a charming hilltop village where winding lanes and ancient stone buildings exude a storybook charm. Nearby Gassin (10km) offers panoramic views of the Mediterranean, making it a perfect spot for a leisurely lunch. Not forgetting the picture-perfect village of Grimaud (13km) with yet more glorious views from its hilltop setting.

The region is also home to some of France's most celebrated vineyards. Embark on a wine-tasting tour to sample exquisite rosés and learn about the winemaking traditions that define this area – look out for wineries near Gassin, Pampelonne and further afield in La Croix Valmer.
