Location & Local Information

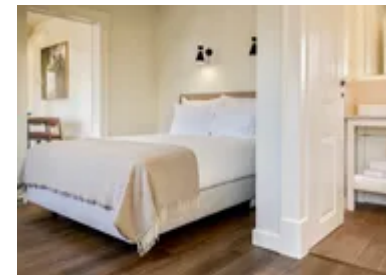

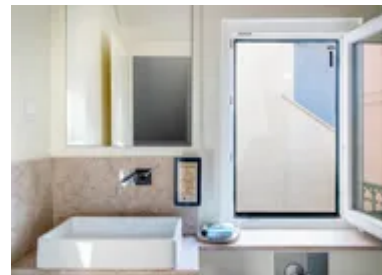

The Barao Penthouse is situated in the vibrant Santos district of Lisbon, an area known for its rich history, cultural energy, and riverside charm. Often referred to as the city's "Design District," Santos is home to a blend of traditional Portuguese heritage and contemporary creativity. Visitors will find themselves surrounded by artisanal shops, trendy cafes, and renowned design studios, making it a hotspot for art and culture enthusiasts.

The penthouse overlooks Largo da Esperança, a picturesque square featuring a historic fountain and traditional architecture. From here, it's a short walk to the banks of the River Tagus, where you can enjoy stunning waterfront views or a leisurely stroll along the promenade. Nearby, explore iconic landmarks like the Museu Nacional de Arte Antiga and the bustling Mercado da Ribeira.

Conveniently located, Santos is well-connected to Lisbon's public transport network, allowing easy access to other highlights such as the historic Alfama district, the bustling Baixa area, and the trendy neighbourhood of Chiado. With its blend of charm, accessibility, and cultural offerings, the location of Barao Penthouse makes it an ideal base for discovering the best of Lisbon.

What we love

- Spacious, open-plan living areas perfect for families
- Prime location near Bairro Alto, Alfama, and cultural attractions
- Private terrace with stunning city views
- Fully equipped kitchen for convenient family meals
- Quiet, safe neighbourhood with easy access to local parks

What you should know...

- The private terrace may have steep stairs, so supervision is recommended for young children
- The property is located in a lively area, so some street noise may be heard, especially at night
