Location & Local Information

Blossom Cottage, located on the outskirts of Kingham, a picturesque village in the heart of the Cotswolds, is the perfect base for exploring the beauty and charm of the region. Known for its traditional stone cottages and peaceful atmosphere, Kingham offers a truly idyllic escape. The village is home to welcoming pubs, a renowned village shop, and a historic church, making it a lovely spot to relax and enjoy the Cotswold way of life. With scenic walking and cycling routes right on your doorstep, it's easy to immerse yourself in the tranquil countryside surroundings. For those who enjoy local culture, guests can get involved in Kingham's food and drink festivals, or explore the area's music festivals throughout the year. Pub walks are also a great way to discover the stunning countryside.

Just a short drive away, Chipping Norton is a bustling market town that adds even more to your holiday experience. Known for its charming high street filled with independent shops, cafés, and local markets, Chipping Norton also boasts a cultural scene with the Chipping Norton Theatre, which hosts a range of performances year-round. Whether you're in the mood for shopping, dining, or enjoying a local show, Chipping Norton has something for everyone.

The surrounding Cotswold area is rich in natural beauty and historic attractions. Explore nearby towns like Stow-on-the-Wold, with its antique shops and charming square, or visit Burford, often called the "gateway to the Cotswolds." Notable landmarks like Blenheim Palace and Hidcote Manor Gardens are also within easy reach, offering plenty to see and do during your stay at Blossom Cottage.
