This charming hamlet of shepherds' houses, some dating back to the 17th century, embodies the quintessential architecture of the Pays d'Arles. Located along the picturesque route to the Sainte Sixte Chapel, just outside Eygalières, the property offers an exceptional setting with breathtaking views of the Alpilles.

Eygalières, a quaint Provençal village, invites you to explore its narrow streets, historic churches, and lively weekly market brimming with local produce and artisan goods. Nearby, the Alpilles Regional Natural Park offers a paradise for nature lovers, with hiking, cycling, and rock climbing amidst olive groves and limestone peaks.

Maison Santal is ideally situated for exploring Provence's highlights. Guests can visit historic and cultural sites like the ancient arenas of Arles, the Carré d'Art in Nîmes, and the antique shops of L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue. Nearby picturesque villages include Les Baux-de-Provence, Saint-Rémy-de-Provence, and Fontvieille.

Wine enthusiasts can enjoy tastings at local vineyards, while food lovers will relish Provençal delicacies like goat cheese, olives, and lavender-infused honey. Cultural treasures abound, from the medieval castles of Les Baux-de-Provence to the Roman ruins in Saint-Rémy-de-Provence.
