

Maison D'Elegance

Region: Provence-Alpes Sleeps: 14

Overview

Tucked away in the heart of the Luberon countryside, Maison d'Élégance is a haven of serenity. Set amid rolling hills and bathed in golden Provençal sunlight, this historic residence offers an unforgettable escape. Once the summer retreat of the Archbishops of Apt, the villa exudes timeless charm, with roots stretching back to the 11th century.

Step through the entrance hall, and you will find yourself enveloped in a world where history meets comfort. The living room beckons with its inviting sofas flanking a grand fireplace—a perfect spot to unwind with a book from the library. Adjacent, the dining room impresses with its vast table, capable of seating up to sixteen. Imagine lingering over a leisurely meal here, surrounded by friends and family. The kitchen is both well-equipped and full of character, ready for any culinary adventure. Wander further, and you'll discover a beautifully restored chapel, now a serene lounge and dining space, perfect for a special gathering.

Climbing the staircase, the sense of history deepens. Eight bedrooms, each with its own unique appeal, await. On the first floor, three bedrooms boast comfortable double beds and private ensembles. The second floor continues with another four ensuite doubles and a charming children's room with bunk beds and a double bed, ensuring space for everyone.

Outside, the villa's grounds are as enchanting as its interiors. The terrace, adorned with seating for fifteen and outdoor dining tables, offers the perfect setting to savour the surrounding views. Beyond, the garden invites relaxation with deckchairs scattered around the sparkling swimming pool. Whether you are lazing poolside, enjoying a lively game of ping-pong, or sipping coffee in the outdoor lounge, the peaceful countryside envelopes you in its embrace.

This delightful retreat, with its thoughtful mix of modern comforts and historic details, provides the perfect backdrop for memorable holidays. Whether a family reunion or a getaway with friends, Maison d'Élégance is your doorway to the idyllic French countryside.

Location & Local Information

Maison d'Élégance is nestled in the picturesque Luberon region of Provence, France—a destination renowned for its natural beauty, charming villages, and cultural heritage. Surrounded by gently rolling hills, fields of lavender, and orchards of olive and fruit trees, the villa offers an idyllic retreat in the heart of the French countryside.

Located near the historic town of Apt, the area is steeped in history, with its roots dating back to Roman times. Apt is famed for its vibrant markets, artisanal products, and quaint streets lined with cafés and shops. Maison d'Élégance is also an excellent base for exploring the Luberon's famed perched villages, such as Gordes and Roussillon, where you can wander cobbled lanes and enjoy breathtaking views.

Nature enthusiasts will delight in the nearby hiking and cycling trails, which meander through the region's stunning landscapes. The villa's secluded setting ensures a peaceful atmosphere, while still being accessible to Provence's cultural treasures. With its warm climate, local gastronomy, and tranquil surroundings, Maison d'Élégance offers an unforgettable escape for those seeking a blend of relaxation and exploration in the heart of Provence.
