

Palazzo Mosa

Region: Puglia Sleeps: 11

Overview

Set just 200 meters from the main square of Muro Leccese; Palazzo Mosa is a stunning five-bedroom villa that seamlessly blends modern comforts with the charm of 16th-century architecture. Spanning two floors and approximately 400 square meters, this elegant retreat accommodates 10–11 guests, making it perfect for families or groups seeking both style and relaxation.

On the ground floor, you'll find two inviting bedrooms with their own bathroom and an additional guest bathroom near the fully equipped kitchen. The first floor features a suite with a double bed, an extra single bed, and a private bathroom with an outdoor heated shower. Two additional bedrooms, a double and a twin (can be converted to double), share another bathroom. Each room is filled with natural light and adorned with chic interiors and a fine art collection.

Location & Local Information

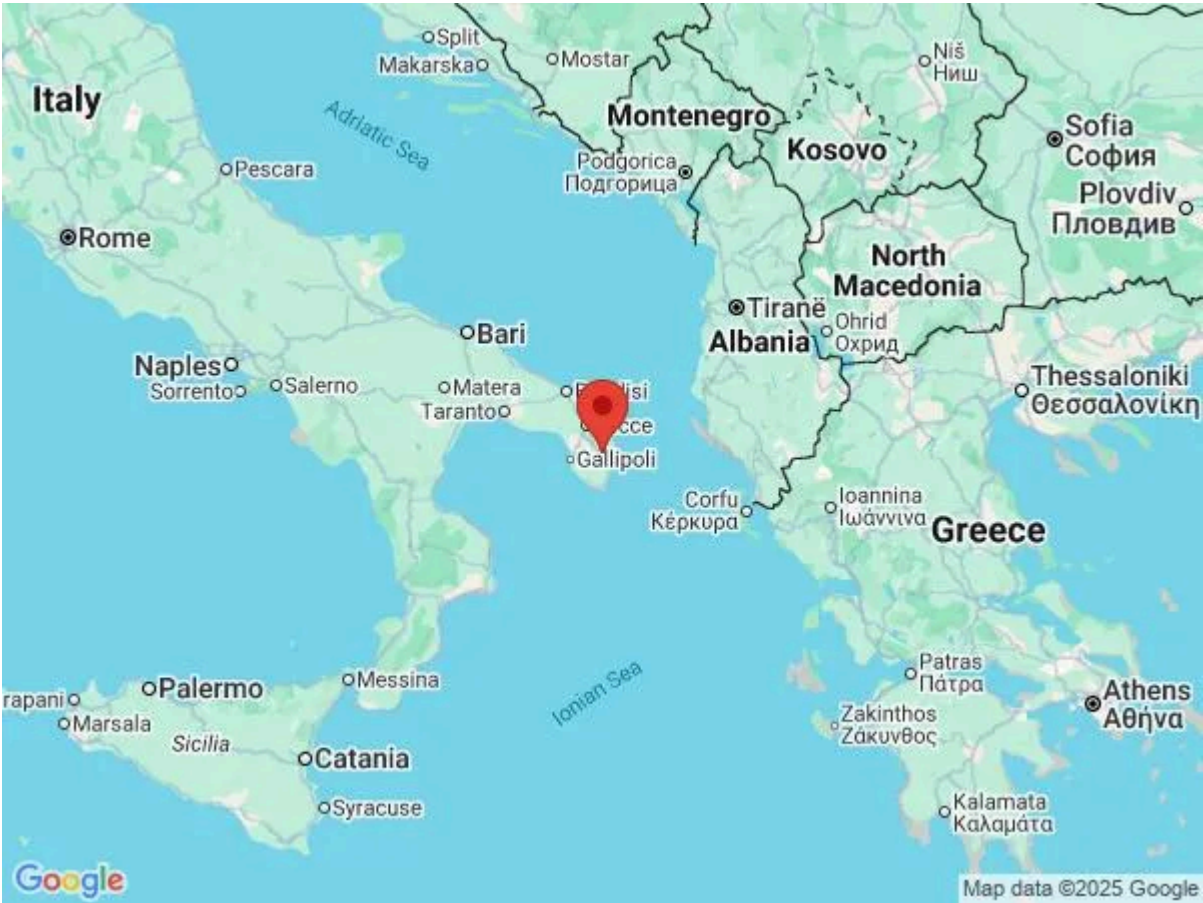

Palazzo Mosa is located in the charming town of Muro Leccese, a gem of the Salentine Peninsula in southern Italy. This idyllic destination perfectly blends culture, history, and relaxation. Wander through narrow streets lined with delightful cafes, authentic restaurants, and beautiful Baroque churches, or explore the town’s museums and picturesque squares.

The surrounding Salentine Peninsula is a treasure trove of experiences. Just a short drive away, Lecce enchants with its exquisite Baroque architecture, earning it the nickname “The Florence of the South.” Otranto, renowned for its stunning cathedral and mosaics, invites exploration, while Gallipoli and Galatina offer unique charm and historical significance. Discover historic lighthouses and breathtaking landscapes along the coast, including the southern tip of Salento, where two distinct coastlines meet.

Beach lovers are spoilt for choice, with sandy shores, pebbled bays, and rocky cliffs just 20 minutes away. Whether you prefer relaxing at a chic beach club or diving into crystal-clear waters, there’s something for everyone. Don’t miss the chance to savour local delicacies like pasticcio, orecchiette, and the region’s exceptional olive oil and wine, immersing yourself in the rich traditions of Puglia.
