Location & Local Information

Le Parasol Rose is located in Saint-Rémy-de-Provence and offers an idyllic retreat amidst the enchanting landscapes of southern France. This charming residence is a stone's throw away from the historic Glanum archaeological site, where ancient Roman ruins tell tales of a bygone era. A leisurely stroll leads you to the Monastery of Saint-Paul de Mausole, famously known as the sanctuary where Vincent van Gogh created masterpieces like "The Starry Night" during his stay.

The vibrant town centre, with its narrow, picturesque streets, is perfect for exploration. Every Wednesday, the local market transforms the squares into a bustling hub of activity, offering fresh produce, artisanal crafts, and a true taste of Provençal life. Art enthusiasts will appreciate the numerous galleries showcasing both contemporary and traditional works, reflecting the region's rich artistic heritage.

For nature lovers, the nearby Alpilles mountains provide scenic trails ideal for hiking and cycling, offering panoramic views of the lush countryside. Wine connoisseurs can indulge in tastings at local vineyards, savouring the distinct flavours of Provence. With its prime location, Le Parasol Rose serves as a perfect gateway to the cultural and natural wonders of Saint-Rémy-de-Provence, promising an unforgettable experience for all who visit.
