Overview

Villa Tringa is nestled in a serene spot on the enchanting island of Crete, offering sweeping views of Souda Bay and the majestic White Mountains. As you approach this traditional-style villa, you'll be captivated by its charming exterior, with warm stone walls that complement the surrounding natural beauty. The villa's location makes it a perfect escape, offering tranquillity and privacy, yet it remains close to local amenities for those wishing to explore.

Stepping inside, you're greeted by an inviting atmosphere, where the blend of family heirlooms and contemporary touches creates a homey yet refined ambience. The wooden floors, rich fabrics, and vibrant textiles add character to each room, with soft colours creating a welcoming and relaxing environment. Whitewashed walls make the spaces feel light and airy, while the glass-enclosed marble bathrooms bring in a touch of modern sophistication. The ground floor is designed for comfort, with a cosy living area complete with a traditional open fireplace, perfect for chilly evenings, and a fully equipped kitchen where you can create delicious meals.

As you wander through the villa, you'll find the first-floor home to two beautiful bedrooms. The master suite, with its king-size 'Dux' bed, boasts spectacular views of the Cretan landscape, and the ensuite bathroom is a true retreat, offering a jacuzzi and separate shower. The second bedroom, also with a 'Dux' bed, can be configured as a king-size and is complemented by its own ensuite. Baby cots and safety features are available on request, ensuring families can relax without worry.

Venture down to the lower ground floor, and you will discover a spacious master bedroom, offering ultimate privacy and comfort. Adjacent to this is a wellness room equipped with a mini gym, sauna, and hammam, providing a peaceful sanctuary for relaxation and rejuvenation.

Stepping outside, the villa's private garden area and stunning infinity pool steal the show. The panoramic views of the White Mountains and the sea beyond are truly breathtaking. Spend your days lounging on the sunbeds, shaded by the wooden patio, or enjoy al fresco dining under the stars, with the aromas of a meal prepared on the built-in barbecue. The space is designed for both peaceful relaxation and entertaining, with ample room to enjoy the Cretan sunshine and cool evening breezes.

Villa Tringa offers a perfect balance of traditional charm and modern comfort, making it an ideal spot for a family holiday. Whether you are lounging by the pool, enjoying the wellness facilities, or soaking in the panoramic views, every corner of this villa invites relaxation and peace.
