Location & Local Information

Only 28km south of Avignon, La Prairie Fleurie is in Les Alpilles Natural Regional Park, around 2km from the pretty hilltop village of Eygalières.

Eygalières is one of the region's most loved villages with its old houses, cobblestone lanes, café terraces and upmarket restaurants including the Michelin starred Maison Hache. Climb to the top of the village, the oldest part of Eygalières, and admire the glorious views of the surrounding countryside. The Friday morning market in the heart of the village is a great way to pick up local produce and gifts to take home.

Pass olive groves, farmland and pine forests as you explore the rugged landscapes of Les Alpilles Natural Regional Park. There are some wonderful walking routes and cycling trails whether you wish to potter to little villages or appreciate the incredible natural beauty around you.

Look out towards endless olive groves from the perched village of Les Baux-de-Provence, one of France's 'Plus Beaux Villages', then enjoy lunch in the bustling village of Maussane-les-Alpilles, so famed for its olive oil (pick some up at the village's Thursday morning market).

Meanwhile, art enthusiasts can follow the footsteps of Van Gogh in both Saint-Rémy-de-Provence (11km) and Arles (35km), both loved for their galleries, restaurants and markets.

A little further afield, embrace yet more stunning scenery across the Luberon with its vineyards, cherry orchards, rolling hills and picture-perfect perched villages such as Ménerbes, Gordes and Roussillon, all reached within a 45-minute drive from Eygalières.
