This delightful house is an escape for up to ten guests, offering five cosy ensuite bedrooms where everyone can retreat, unwind, and feel right at home.

Crossing the threshold, you are greeted by interiors bursting with warmth and character. The traditional family kitchen, with its flagstone floors, range cooker, and antique furnishings, feels like the heart of the home. It's the kind of kitchen that invites you to gather over a morning coffee or prepare meals with fresh local ingredients. The dining room is wonderfully sociable, with built-in banquette seating where everyone can slide in for hours of conversation and laughter around the table.

There's something for everyone here: a tennis court for spirited games, pétanque for a touch of Provençal tradition, and a gym housed in the old stables. afternoons. As the day turns to evening, the outdoor dining space becomes the perfect spot to gather, with the barbecue sizzling away and the warm breeze carrying the sounds of nature.
