Overview

Trullo Raldi is a charming two-bedroom villa in the heart of Puglia, offering an authentic retreat for up to four guests. The family's passion for hospitality dates back to 1980 when Castellana Grotte became a tourist destination following the discovery of its magnificent caves. With nearly 40 years of experience, we take pride in ensuring our guests enjoy a memorable stay at Trullo Raldi, a beautifully restored 100-year-old trullo.

Inside, the villa seamlessly blends traditional charm with modern comforts. The fully equipped kitchen provides everything needed for home-cooked meals. The villa features two bedrooms—one with a double bed and another with twin beds, making it ideal for families or small groups. A modern bathroom with a shower, sink, bidet, and WC completes the interiors.

Outside, guests can relax by the private swimming pool, unwind on the pool terrace with sun loungers, or enjoy alfresco dining under the shaded veranda. A hammock invites afternoon naps, while the barbecue is perfect for grilling local delicacies.
