

Villa Iridos

Region: Corfu Sleeps: 10

Overview

Tucked away on Corfu's serene east coast, Villa Iridos offers a rare glimpse into history and tranquility. Just a stone's throw from the UNESCO-listed Old Town and a stroll from the lively Gouvia Yacht Marina, this 18th-century gem is a haven of authenticity and seclusion. As you step through its grand entrance, you embark on a journey through time, where echoes of Venetian aristocrats, diplomats, and visionaries still linger in the air.

Inside, the villa's charm unfolds effortlessly. High, beamed ceilings and original stone walls frame a beautifully curated interior, where antique heirlooms sit harmoniously alongside contemporary furnishings. The living spaces exude warmth and sophistication, with sumptuous seating, handwoven textiles, and glistening chandeliers casting a soft glow over centuries-old artefacts. Each of the five ensuite bedrooms tells its own story, adorned with carefully selected artwork and offering breathtaking sea views. Modern comforts blend seamlessly with historic elegance, ensuring every moment spent here is one of pure relaxation.

As you wander outside, the true magic of Villa Iridos reveals itself. Set amidst two acres of lush Mediterranean gardens, the scent of citrus blossoms and lavender fills the air. Ancient olive trees cast dappled shadows over meandering pathways, leading to hidden terraces where you can sip your morning coffee as the Ionian glistens before you. Just beyond the gate, a near-private beach invites you to dip your toes in the crystal-clear waters, while the vintage swimming pool, shaded by towering palms, offers the perfect retreat from the midday sun. For those with a competitive spirit, the villa's tennis court and outdoor recreational spaces provide endless entertainment.

From the moment you arrive, Villa Iridos welcomes you not just as a guest, but as part of its storied past. Whether dining under the stars, exploring Corfu's rich cultural heritage or simply basking in the villa's timeless beauty, every experience here is one to be treasured. This is more than a stay—it's an invitation to become part of history.

Location & Local Information

Villa Iridos enjoys a prime location on Corfu's picturesque east coast, offering guests the perfect balance of seclusion and accessibility. Just a short drive from Corfu's UNESCO-listed Old Town, the villa provides easy access to the island's rich history, vibrant culture, and exceptional dining. The nearby Gouvia Yacht Marina, one of the largest in the Mediterranean, is a hub for sailing enthusiasts and a lively spot for waterfront restaurants and cafés.

The villa's coastal setting places guests directly on the Ionian Sea, with a near-private beach just beyond the garden. This stretch of coastline is known for its calm, clear waters, ideal for swimming, snorkelling, and water sports. Further inland, traditional villages and olive groves offer a glimpse into authentic Corfiot life, while a network of walking trails leads to panoramic viewpoints.

With its combination of cultural attractions, natural beauty, and relaxed Mediterranean charm, the location of Villa Iridos makes it an exceptional holiday destination for those seeking both exploration and tranquillity. Whether enjoying the island's historical sites, indulging in fresh seafood, or simply unwinding by the sea, guests will find Corfu's allure impossible to resist.

What we love

- Step straight onto a near-private beach and soak up breathtaking Ionian Sea views from your own secluded retreat.
- Stay in an 18th-century villa filled with character, antiques, and contemporary luxuries.
- Enjoy a vintage pool, private tennis court, lush gardens, and easy access to Corfu's UNESCO Old Town and Gouvia Marina.

What you should know...

- Direct beach access means uneven surfaces and slippery rocks; care is needed when exploring the shoreline.
- Some areas feature original stone steps and low ceilings, which may require extra caution.
- The vintage pool and tennis court are unfenced, so supervision is recommended for children.
