The interiors are full of character, each room thoughtfully designed with a unique style that still feels cohesive and well-loved. The kitchen is a true heart of the home, with plenty of room to gather and cook together. The large fridge-freezer is perfect for stocking up on local produce, cheeses, and of course, wine. A small breakfast table sits nearby, encouraging lively conversations as everyone chips in to prepare meals.

Four bedrooms are tucked away, each with double beds (three queen-size), two upstairs and the others with direct access to the terrace/garden.

The real magic of Mas Harmonie lies outdoors. Stepping outside, you'll find yourself surrounded by expansive gardens, where vines, olive trees, and cypress trees add to the provencal ambience. There are ample spots to relax and soak up the sun, from elegant sun loungers to seating areas hidden among the greenery. The outdoor kitchen and dining space is a true highlight, making al fresco dining an effortless delight.

Of course, no visit is complete without a dip in the sparkling private pool, or simply unwind on the garden terrace with a glass of local wine in hand, with the charm of Saint-Rémy-de-Provence and beauty of Provence so near!

Saint-Rémy is loved for its galleries, wonderful restaurants, cafe terraces, vibrant Wednesday morning market and Van Gogh heritage.

Beyond Saint-Rémy, Provence is a land of captivating contrasts, known for its glorious landscapes, historic charm, and rich heritage. Rolling vineyards, olive groves, and fields of lavender create a patchwork of natural beauty, their colours and scents forever associated with the region's identity.

Charming medieval villages perch atop hills, offering breathtaking views of the countryside, while bustling towns like Avignon (22km) and Aix-en-Provence (67km) showcase the region's rich cultural heritage. Provence's Roman past is evident in impressive ruins, such as the amphitheatre in Arles (27km) and the aqueduct of Pont du Gard (38km). The region's cuisine is as vibrant as its landscape, with sun-ripened tomatoes, fragrant herbs, and some of France's finest extra virgin olive oil forming the foundation of its dishes, complemented by locally produced wines.

The climate ensures sunny days and mild winters, drawing artists and travellers alike to its golden light and serene vistas.
