

Villa Lewella

Region: Kefalonia Sleeps: 2

Overview

Nestled in the heart of Assos, one of Kefalonia's most picturesque villages, Villa Lewella is a haven of peace and elegance. Perched on a hillside, the villa enjoys sweeping views of the Ionian Sea, the colourful houses of Assos, and the lush, rolling hills beyond. The gentle sea breeze and the scent of pine drift through the air, immediately putting you at ease as you step inside.

The interiors are a masterclass in understated beauty, seamlessly blending contemporary design with the villa's natural surroundings. The soft, neutral tones create a calming atmosphere, while thoughtfully placed furnishings ensure comfort at every turn. The open-plan living space is cleverly designed to maximise both style and practicality. A built-in sofa invites you to sink in with a book, while the compact yet fully equipped kitchen has everything you need to prepare fresh Mediterranean dishes. A few steps lead up to the raised double bed, offering a cosy yet airy retreat with just the right amount of separation from the main living area. The modern bathroom is sleek and stylish, fitted with high-quality finishes that add to the villa's charm.

Stepping outside is like walking into a dream. The sun-drenched terrace is framed by awe-inspiring views of the sea and surrounding hills, a backdrop that changes beautifully with the light throughout the day. At the heart of the outdoor space lies the inviting private pool, its shimmering waters reflecting the Kefalonian sky. Multiple seating areas are thoughtfully positioned to make the most of the scenery—whether you choose to unwind in the shade with a morning coffee, bask in the sunshine with a cool drink in hand, or enjoy an alfresco meal under the stars.

Perfect for a small family or a romantic retreat, Villa

Lewella comfortably accommodates up to three adults and two children. Whether you spend your days exploring Assos' charming harbour, discovering hidden coves along the coast, or simply soaking in the peaceful surroundings, this villa is the perfect place to slow down, breathe, and embrace the beauty of island life.

Location & Local Information

Villa Lewella is ideally situated in Assos, a charming and tranquil village on the northern coast of Kefalonia, Greece. Known for its scenic beauty, Assos offers a peaceful retreat away from the island's busier tourist areas. The village is perched on a small peninsula, providing stunning panoramic views of the Ionian Sea, the rugged coastline, and the lush hills that surround it. The picturesque harbour, with its colourful waterfront houses and small, peaceful beach, is just a short distance from the villa.

Assos is a great base for exploring Kefalonia's natural wonders. Nearby, the dramatic cliffs and hidden coves of the region offer opportunities for hiking, swimming, and relaxing in serene, uncrowded surroundings. The famous Myrtos Beach, with its striking turquoise waters, is a short drive away, as is the ancient Venetian castle that towers above the village.

For those seeking a more active holiday, the nearby town of Fiskardo offers excellent dining, shopping, and boat trips to nearby islands. Assos itself remains a peaceful haven, perfect for those looking to unwind and enjoy authentic Greek island life.
