

Hamlet In Montalcino

Region: Tuscany Sleeps: 12

Overview

Just below the ramparts of Montalcino, hidden behind mellow stone walls and shaded fig trees, lies a historic hamlet lovingly restored for modern-day ease. Inside, terracotta floors and time-worn beams sit alongside curated furnishings and indulgent touches, from the open fireplace in the lounge to a romantic standalone bathtub in the main bedroom. The layout is thoughtfully spread out, with four bedrooms in the main house and two in peaceful annexes, perfect for groups seeking both connection and privacy.

Daily breakfast and housekeeping add an effortless rhythm to your days, while king-size beds can be tailored into singles for flexible sleeping arrangements. Step into the garden and the pace slows further. A private pool glimmers in the sunshine, a bubbling hot tub awaits beneath the trees, and a traditional pizza oven stands ready for golden crusts and fire-pit storytelling after dark.

Located in the hilltop heart of southern Tuscany, you're just a short stroll from the cafés, wine shops and cobbled charm of Montalcino's historic centre. And when the road calls, the landscapes around Pienza, Montepulciano and Siena lie temptingly close for timeless day trips.

Montalcino itself is a jewel of southern Tuscany, renowned for its 14th-century fortress, slow food scene and sweeping vineyard views that shift colour with the seasons.
