Location & Local Information

Villa Don Alfonso is nestled in the picturesque hills of Sant'Agata sui Due Golfi, a charming Italian village renowned for its stunning views and tranquil atmosphere. Just 1 km from the villa, the village offers a selection of shops, cafés, and traditional restaurants, including the acclaimed Don Alfonso 1890 and Lo Stuzzichino, both celebrated for their exquisite cuisine.

This area is perfect for outdoor enthusiasts, with scenic hiking trails winding through verdant hills and vineyards, offering breathtaking panoramas of the Gulf of Salerno and the Gulf of Naples. The nearby town of Sorrento, just 10 km away, serves as a gateway to the Amalfi Coast and is rich in history, with its ancient architecture and bustling marina.

Sant'Agata sui Due Golfi itself is steeped in heritage, with a legacy of winemaking and local crafts. The village's strategic location makes it an ideal base for day trips to Positano, Amalfi, and the archaeological wonders of Pompeii and Herculaneum. Whether indulging in local delicacies or exploring the scenic coastline, visitors are immersed in authentic Italian charm and culture.
