What we love

- Velcro Apartment offers a comfortable and well-equipped stay in the heart of Rome, just a short distance from Termini Station
- With three stylish bedrooms, a fully equipped kitchen, and air conditioning in every room, the apartment ensures a relaxing and convenient experience
- Located on the fourth floor with an elevator, it provides easy access to Rome's main attractions while offering a peaceful retreat after sightseeing

What you should know...

- The apartment is conveniently located near Termini Station, making it easy to explore Rome. However, as this area is busy, you may experience city noise, especially during peak hours
- The building has an elevator for your convenience, but as with any historic building, occasional maintenance may require guests to use the stairs
- The host will personally welcome guests! To ensure a smooth arrival, we kindly ask that you share your flight or train details with us in advance to avoid any waiting time at check-in
- If you plan to arrive by car, please note that parking is unavailable at the apartment. However, there are paid parking options nearby
- While the apartment is spacious and beautifully designed, it does not have a terrace or balcony. That said, you're just steps away from some of Rome's most charming piazzas and outdoor cafés!
