

Maison Dimanche

Region: Provence-Alpes Sleeps: 10

Overview

In the countryside only 2.5km from Saint-Rémy-de-Provence, Maison Dimanche is a gorgeous holiday home that seamlessly blends rustic charm with contemporary elegance. This beautiful mas welcomes you into an atmosphere of serenity, surrounded by olive groves and fragrant lavender fields.

Designed for both relaxation and entertainment, the home is fully air-conditioned and unfolds over two levels, offering expansive living spaces bathed in natural light. Whether you are lounging in the inviting TV room, gathering in the stylish second lounge, or preparing a feast in the open-plan kitchen with direct access to the terrace and pool, every corner of this home exudes comfort and charm.

With five well-appointed bedrooms, including a magnificent master suite, Maison Dimanche ensures restful nights after sun-soaked days exploring the region. The outdoor spaces are equally captivating, featuring a heated swimming pool, a summer kitchen, and terraces perfect for alfresco dining under the Provençal sky. Challenge your companions to table tennis, or simply recline on the sun loungers with a good book.

Just a short drive away, Saint-Rémy-de-Provence is a treasure trove of cultural and historic delights. Stroll through its lively streets lined with art galleries, café terraces, and a Wednesday morning market, where you can sample the finest local produce.

Nature enthusiasts will revel in the stunning hiking trails, scenic cycling routes and picture-perfect villages through Les Alpilles Regional Natural Park. For a taste of authentic Provence, indulge in gourmet dining, discover local vineyards, or simply immerse yourself in the slow, sun-drenched rhythm of life in this timeless region.

Location & Local Information

Maison Dimanche enjoys a countryside setting only 2.5km from the heart of Saint-Rémy-de-Provence, just over half an hour south of Avignon.

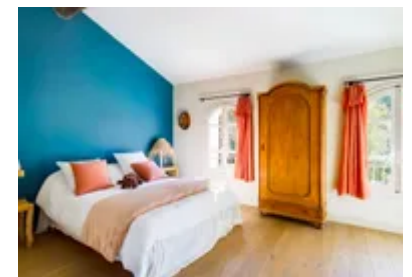

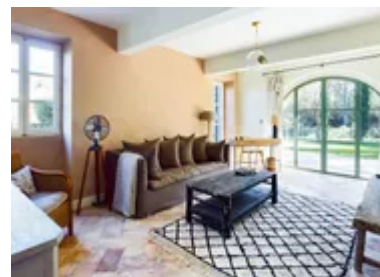

Saint-Rémy-de-Provence is a captivating destination where history, culture, and natural beauty converge. With its charming cobbled streets, traditional squares and vibrant cafés, the old quarter of this picturesque town offers a quintessential Provençal experience. Don't miss the wonderful Wednesday morning market that attracts visitors from across the region.

Saint-Rémy is also known for its artistic heritage, famously inspiring Vincent van Gogh, whose legacy can still be felt in the town's galleries and museums. Whether you are wandering through its inviting boutiques, enjoying a leisurely meal at a gourmet restaurant, or simply soaking in the bustling atmosphere, Saint-Rémy-de-Provence is a place where time seems to stand still.

Surrounded by the breathtaking landscapes of Les Alpilles, Saint-Rémy provides the perfect base for outdoor adventures. The rugged limestone hills and rolling olive groves offer a stunning backdrop for hiking, cycling, horse-riding, rock-climbing and nature walks, allowing visitors to fully immerse themselves in the region's natural beauty.

Just a short drive away, the charming village of Eygalières (14km) enchants visitors with its medieval architecture, winding streets, and panoramic views of the Provençal countryside. Look out for high-end dining and a lovely Friday morning market. Meanwhile, a visit to Les Baux-de-Provence (10km) unveils a striking medieval fortress perched high on a rocky plateau, offering breathtaking views and a glimpse into the past.

The artistic and historic city of Arles (25km), with its Roman amphitheatre and UNESCO-listed monuments, provides a deeper exploration into the region's historical significance. Heading north instead, Avignon (23km), home to the majestic Palais des Papes, boasts a rich cultural heritage and lively festival scene, making it an unmissable destination for history and art lovers alike.
