Location & Local Information

Arenal d'en Castell is a beautiful coastal resort on Menorca's northern coast, known for its stunning crescent-shaped beach with soft golden sand and calm, shallow waters, making it ideal for families. The beach (a 5 minute walk away!) is perfect for sunbathing, swimming, and enjoying beachfront bars with sea views.

For outdoor enthusiasts, the Cami de Cavalls coastal trail runs through the area, offering scenic hiking and cycling routes with breathtaking cliffside views. A short drive away (about 20 minutes), Fornells is a charming fishing village famous for its delicious Caldereta de Langosta (lobster stew) and a hub for water sports like kayaking, paddle boarding, and sailing.

Golf lovers can visit Golf Son Parc, Menorca's only golf course, just 10 minutes away. For a cultural experience, take a trip to Monte Toro, Menorca's highest peak, where you can admire panoramic island views and visit the Sanctuary of the Virgin of Monte Toro.

The island's capital, Mahón, is 25 minutes away, offering historical sites, shopping, and excellent restaurants along its picturesque harbor. Nature lovers can explore the S'Albufera des Grau Natural Park, a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve perfect for birdwatching and hiking. For a unique experience, boat trips and dolphin-watching tours are available nearby, making Arenal d'en Castell a perfect blend of relaxation and adventure.

What we love

- The spacious garden area is perfect for kids to run around and burn off some energy in the sun whilst the adults keep an eye from the conservatory
- Each bedroom has its own bathroom, whether en-suite or separate, giving everyone their privacy
- Villa Arenal is in a great location to combine peaceful surroundings, but also with close proximity to shops, restaurants, and of course the beach!
- The gorgeous Arenal beach is only a 5-minute walk from the villa and is a perfect place to relax all day under the sun!

What you should know...

- The pool is unfenced and parents should make sure children are well supervised at all times
- Car hire is advised so that guests are able to explore the island with ease
- A cot and highchair are available at the villa for younger children
