Location & Local Information

The Oltrarno district captures the essence of authentic Florence. Located on the quieter south side of the Arno River, this charming neighbourhood is a world away from the tourist-heavy streets just across the bridge. Cobblestone lanes lead to artisan workshops, antique boutiques and family-run trattorias that have remained unchanged for generations. It's a district known for its creative soul and relaxed atmosphere, where local life takes centre stage and every corner tells a story.

Cultural highlights are just steps away: the magnificent Palazzo Pitti and its expansive Boboli Gardens, the Brancacci Chapel's Renaissance frescoes, and the panoramic views from Piazzale Michelangelo and San Miniato al Monte. Whether browsing the antiques on Via Maggio or enjoying a glass of wine in a tucked-away piazza, visitors are rewarded with an authentic and immersive experience. Oltrarno is the beating heart of Florence's artisan heritage – slower, more prosperous and full of understated character.
