Region: Provence-Alpes   Sleeps: 15

Overview

Close to the enchanting village of Lacoste, Mas des Cerises is a stunning 8-bedroom villa that offers the perfect blend of elegance, comfort, and historical charm for up to 15 guests. This magnificent estate is set amidst the serene beauty of the Luberon region, where rolling hills, picturesque villages, and ancient vineyards surround you.

The villa itself is wonderful, offering elegant areas designed for both relaxation and entertainment with a fully-equipped kitchen, stylish dining room, and two spacious living rooms. Across the two upper floors, each of the eight air-conditioned bedrooms comes with its own en-suite bathroom, ensuring privacy and comfort for all guests. Another superb amenity is the fully-equipped gym.

It's truly idyllic outside with summer lavender, shady trees, gorgeous terraces and the swimming pool that can be heated on request (for a supplement). Spend the day playing on the tennis and padel court, practice your golf on the little putting green and play traditional boules in such picture-perfect surroundings. At the end of the day, gather on the terrace for al-fresco meals lovingly prepared on the barbecue and drink Luberon rosé on warm summer evenings.

Less than 1km from Lacoste, Mas des Cerises offers easy access to the enchanting Luberon region. Lacoste, known for its medieval streets and the legacy of the Marquis de Sade, is a place where history comes alive. Stroll through the cobbled lanes or relax in the village's peaceful atmosphere before exploring the natural beauty and attractions of the Luberon.

From cycling the Véloroute du Calavon to visiting vineyards, perched villages, vibrant markets and upmarket restaurants, there is something for everyone in this timeless corner of Provence.

Location & Local Information

In the heart of the picturesque Luberon region, Lacoste offers an unforgettable escape, where cobblestone streets, charming stone houses, and breathtaking landscapes await. Mas des Cerises is less than 1km from the heart of this little hilltop village.

Once home to the Marquis de Sade, this medieval village is a hidden gem that invites you to experience the rustic elegance and cultural richness of Provence. Whether you're strolling through the narrow alleys or relaxing at a café with a glass of local rosé, Lacoste provides the ideal base for exploring the beauty of the surrounding Luberon mountains. From a practical point of view, there is a handy grocery store in Lacoste as well as a pizzeria near the tourist office.

The Luberon is famous for its stunning natural beauty and idyllic hilltop villages, each one offering a glimpse into the timeless charm of Provence. Discover the galleries and pretty shops of Gordes (15km) or wander through the vineyards of Ménerbes (8km), both classified as two of France's 'Plus Beaux Villages'. For nature lovers, a visit to the charming village of Roussillon (11km), with its striking ochre cliffs, is a must, whilst nearby Bonnieux (6km) boasts stunning panoramic views over the valley.

Don't miss the opportunity to explore the local markets, where you can indulge in regional delicacies like honey, olives, and goat cheese – perfect for a picnic amidst the rolling hills or shady forests. Not to mention wonderful restaurants, many with terraces overlooking the idyllic vistas. Furthermore, come across Michelin starred establishments near Lourmarin, Cucuron and Ansouis, all within half an hour by car.

For those with a sense of adventure, the Luberon offers a wide range of outdoor activities. Explore the region's numerous hiking trails, or embark on the beautiful cycling route following Calavon River. History buffs will be captivated by the ancient castles, Roman ruins, and picturesque abbeys scattered throughout the area, including the majestic Sénanque Abbey, surrounded by lavender fields that bloom in spectacular shades of purple each summer.
