What we love

- Two separate chalets offer flexible accommodation, perfect for families or friends travelling together who value both shared and private spaces
- Multiple lounges, sunny terraces, and private gardens make it easy for guests to spread out and enjoy the alpine setting at their own pace
- From a stylish bar and games lounge with a pool table to BBQ-ready gardens and a barrel sauna, there's something for everyone

What you should know...

- Guests will need to move between the two via the outside paths, which may be less convenient in poor weather
- The smaller chalet(Chalet Petit), originally a garage, has some spatial quirks, including a sloped ceiling in the upstairs bathroom, which may be restrictive for taller guests
- While surrounded by nature, local shops and restaurants may require a short drive depending on the time of year
