

Apartment Cubas

Region: Spain Sleeps: 8

Overview

Apartment Cubas is an elegant and refined apartment in one of Madrid's most exclusive residences. Located in a stunning early 20th-century building, this exquisite apartment blends historic charm with contemporary comforts. Situated in the prestigious Cortes neighbourhood, it offers tranquillity while being just moments from iconic landmarks such as the Ritz and Four Seasons Hotels, Retiro Park, the Botanical Garden, and the renowned museums of Thyssen and Prado.

Inside, the apartment showcases an exceptional collection of Spanish art and features an expansive entrance hall leading to a grand living and dining area. With soaring ceilings and three impressive balconies overlooking Calle Marqués de Cubas, the space is filled with natural light. The flat has been recently renovated to include underfloor heating and cooling, as well as air conditioning, ensuring comfort year-round.

The apartment boasts four beautifully appointed bedrooms, all with en-suite bathrooms. The master suite is particularly special, featuring a spacious walk-in wardrobe, a separate lounge area, a double bathroom and an elegant balcony. A fully equipped kitchen, a cosy TV room, and a well-appointed laundry room complete the home. Every detail has been carefully curated, from handcrafted wood mouldings to natural oak floors, creating a refined yet welcoming atmosphere.

Whether you are looking for a quiet retreat, or to explore Madrid's vibrant streets, this is the perfect base, an elegant, refined apartment to make your stay truly unique.

Location & Local Information

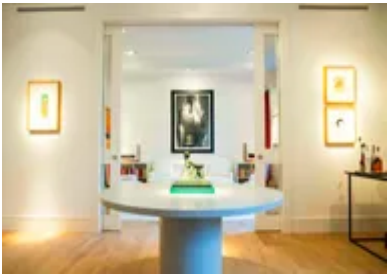

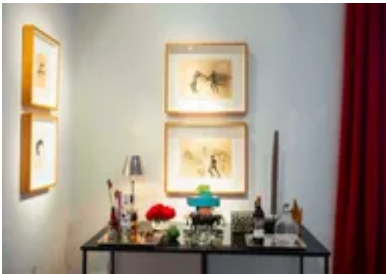

Apartment Cubas is situated in the heart of Madrid's prestigious Cortes neighbourhood, a district known for its rich cultural heritage, elegant architecture, and vibrant atmosphere. Nestled on a peaceful street, the apartment offers tranquillity while being just steps away from some of the city's most iconic landmarks.

This prime location places you within walking distance of world-renowned museums, including the Prado, Thyssen-Bornemisza, and Reina Sofía, making it a dream for art and history lovers. Retiro Park and the Royal Botanical Garden offer lush green spaces for a leisurely stroll, while the nearby Salamanca district boasts high-end boutiques and gourmet dining. The area is also home to traditional tapas bars, charming cafés, and exclusive restaurants, perfect for experiencing Madrid's renowned culinary scene.

Steeped in history, the Cortes neighbourhood has long been a cultural and intellectual hub, with its grand boulevards and stately buildings reflecting the city's aristocratic past. Whether you seek art, gastronomy, shopping, or relaxation, this location provides the perfect base for exploring Madrid's finest offerings.

What we love

- A beautifully restored early 20th-century apartment with high ceilings, handcrafted wood mouldings, and elegant interiors
- Three stunning balconies overlooking Calle Marqués de Cubas, flooding the living space with natural light
- Prime location in the prestigious Cortes neighbourhood, just a short walk from the Prado Museum, Retiro Park, and world-class dining

What you should know...

- The central location means you are in the heart of Madrid, which can be lively at times—though the apartment itself is on a quiet street
- The single bedroom is smaller in size compared to the other rooms, making it more suitable for a child or solo traveller
