

Villa Rubie

Region: Naxos Sleeps: 8

Overview

Beyond the sun-bleached dunes of Glyfada Beach, Villa Rubie rises from the Naxian landscape like a modern ode to Cycladic tradition—its whitewashed façade softened by vivid touches of colour and the shimmering expanse of the Aegean just beyond. Set over three levels on Naxos’s serene southwest coast, the villa commands a prime hillside position, offering soul-stirring sea views by day and a magical interplay of moonlight and stars by night.

Thoughtfully designed to honour the island’s architectural heritage, Villa Rubie is defined by clean lines, generous terraces, and a layout that prioritises space and privacy. Each room features its own entrance, creating a sense of effortless independence for guests. Inside, the mood is one of relaxed sophistication—from the open-plan kitchen and lounge that flows into the pool terrace, to the bedrooms where splashes of joyful colour animate the calming whites. Outside, landscaped gardens and dim-lit terraces blend seamlessly into the wild beauty of the hillside, while the private pool becomes a refreshing focal point for slow afternoons.

Days here unfold in rhythm with the landscape. Begin with coffee overlooking the sea, then wander down to the wide, windswept sands of Glyfada. Venture further to discover cedar-fringed coves or savour local dishes in nearby tavernas. As the sun sets, return to your perch above the bay—where the only lights come from the pool, the stars, and the moon rising just above the horizon.

For those craving untamed coastal beauty and a villa designed for togetherness and seclusion, Villa Rubie is a place where every moment feels naturally elevated.
