What we love

- Housekeeping services are provided for 2 hours daily, ensuring a comfortable and well-maintained stay, with the exception of Sundays.
- The villa features a heated pool, allowing for a relaxing swim regardless of the season.
- Covered parking is available on-site, offering convenience and protection for your vehicle during your stay.

What you should know...

- The pool area requires an attentive eye on children, as it is not gated for safety.
- Unfortunately, pets are not allowed at Villa Zecalo, making it less suitable for families travelling with their furry companions.
- A car is necessary to fully explore the surrounding area, as the villa is located a bit outside the main town and beaches.
