Overview

Surrounded by the charm of the Provençal countryside near Arles, Maison Camargue offers a warm invitation to unwind, reconnect, and savour the rhythms of southern France. Between the windswept wilderness of the Camargue and the beautiful hills of Les Alpilles, this spacious farmhouse sleeps up to ten guests in comfort and character.

Every corner of the property blends traditional charm with modern ease, making it an attractive setting for families or friends looking to share an authentic escape.

Inside, the home is bright and welcoming. Downstairs, two kitchens make shared cooking a delight, while a choice of dining areas invite leisurely meals over local wine and Provençal fare. A spacious lounge with a TV and French billiards table offers space to relax or simply chat late into the night.

Upstairs beneath the beams, four bedrooms are lovingly decorated, two with their own bathrooms. The entire villa is fully air-conditioned, ensuring a cool and restful stay, and there is Wi-Fi throughout.

Step outside, and the pleasures of country living unfold. A private swimming pool glistens beneath the Provençal sun, surrounded by a mature garden and sun loungers that invite you to linger. Long afternoons are made for barbecues, a refreshing drink at the bar, and laughter echoing through the trees.

Only a short drive from Arles, Maison Camargue opens the door to a region rich in history, festivals, and artistic flair. Explore Roman ruins, vibrant markets, and the soul-stirring landscapes that inspired Van Gogh. The raw beauty of the Camargue—with its wild horses, pink flamingos, and salt flats—lies just beyond, while the picture-perfect villages of Les Baux-de-Provence, Paradou and Maussane-les-Alpilles are within easy reach.

For those seeking a holiday where nature, heritage, and heartfelt hospitality meet, Maison Camargue promises a traditional Provençal stay to remember.

Location & Local Information

Maison Camargue is located in the Arles countryside only a short drive from the artistic town with Marseille, Nîmes and Avignon Airport all within an hours drive (as well as Gare d'Avignon TGV for arrivals from Paris). The nearest amenities can be found in Raphèle-lès-Arles (4km) and Saint-Martin-de-Crau (7km).

Steeped in history, Arles (14km) is a town where ancient heritage and artistic soul come together. Wander its cobbled streets and you'll stumble upon remarkably preserved Roman monuments, from the grand amphitheatre to the theatre and baths – a captivating journey for culture lovers and curious travellers alike. Vincent van Gogh's legacy lives on in Arles too, with walking trails, museums, and landmarks echoing his bold brushstrokes and vibrant vision of southern France.

Just south of the town lies the Camargue, a striking natural region of salt flats, wild marshes, and endless horizons. Families and nature enthusiasts will love spotting the region's famous white horses, black bulls, and flocks of flamingos. Outdoor adventures await with horse-riding, birdwatching, and serene boat rides through this untouched landscape, where the Rhône meets the Mediterranean.

To the north, the landscapes shift to the rugged beauty of Les Alpilles, a haven for hikers and history buffs. Explore Les Baux-de-Provence (18km), a stunning hilltop village crowned with a medieval fortress and panoramic views. Saint-Rémy-de-Provence (23km) enchants with leafy boulevards, art galleries and a vibrant Wednesday morning market.

The gentle pace of life continues in Martigues (44km), often called the "Venice of Provence" thanks to its canals and colourful harbourfronts. This waterside town is ideal for relaxed strolls and soaking up Provençal charm, with the Étang de Berre providing a scenic backdrop. Complete the picture with a visit to the Mediterranean at Fos-sur-

Mer (32km) where sandy beaches and calm shallows provide a welcome break for families and sunseekers.
