

Calm Sea Villa

Region: Carvoeiro Sleeps: 8

Overview

Nestled in the heart of Ferragudo, Calm Sea Villa is a charming riverside townhouse that invites you in with a sense of warmth and ease. Step inside and you'll find yourself in a welcoming space that feels more like a well-loved home than a holiday let. With three bedrooms and three bathrooms split across flexible levels, the villa caters to both small families and larger groups, offering cosy corners for privacy and shared spaces for gathering. Air conditioning, Wi-Fi, and fully equipped kitchens bring comfort and convenience to your stay, while thoughtful touches like complimentary bathroom amenities add a little extra charm.

Wander out to the private pool for a cooling dip, or head up to the rooftop terrace where the real magic unfolds. With sweeping views over Portimão and the Arade River, it's the perfect perch for a lazy breakfast or sunset barbecue. The surrounding gardens and terrace area offer both shade and sunshine, ideal for unwinding at your own pace.

Just a short stroll away, Ferragudo's cobbled streets, cafés, and golden beaches await. Whether you're exploring the coast or lounging on the terrace, Calm Sea Villa offers a relaxed and memorable retreat in one of the Algarve's most picturesque corners.

Location & Local Information

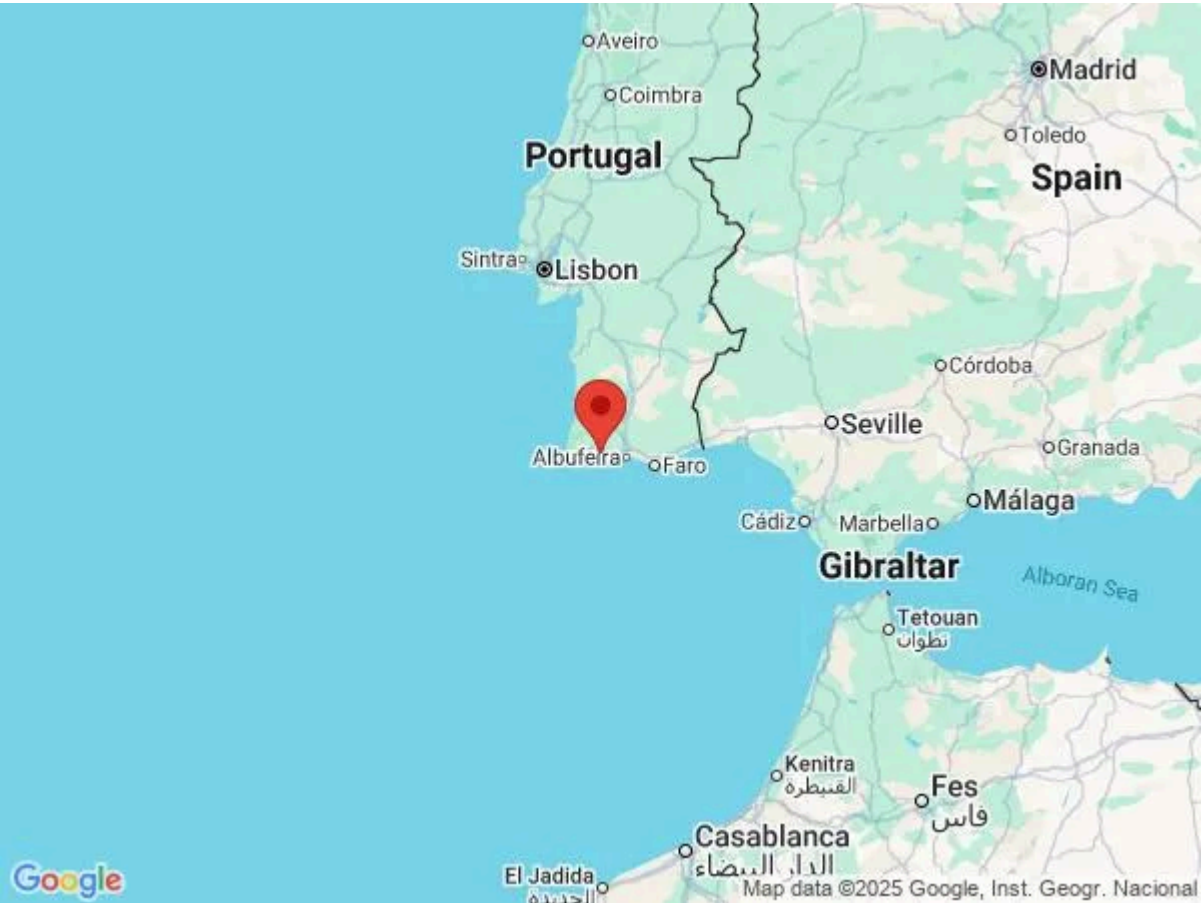

Calm Sea Villa sits in the heart of Ferragudo, a picturesque fishing village on Portugal's Algarve coast, where whitewashed houses tumble down cobbled lanes towards the waterfront. Just a short stroll from the villa, you'll find traditional bakeries, family-run restaurants serving fresh seafood, and quaint cafés perfect for morning coffee. The town square often comes alive with local music and markets, offering a glimpse into the region's vibrant culture.

Wander a little further and you'll reach several beautiful beaches such as Praia Grande, ideal for swimming, kayaking or simply soaking up the sun. Boat tours and dolphin-watching trips depart nearby, while riverside walks and cliffside trails showcase the area's natural beauty.

Ferragudo's roots stretch back centuries, with its historic charm still visible in the 16th-century São João do Arade castle overlooking the river mouth. Known for its slower pace and authentic character, this corner of the Algarve promises a truly local experience, full of warmth and discovery.

What we love

- The rooftop terrace is perfect for sunset barbecues with sweeping views over the Arade River and Portimão skyline!
- Tucked in the heart of Ferragudo, charming cafés, seafood restaurants and golden beaches are all within a short stroll.
- Private pool and garden terrace offer peaceful spots to unwind after a day exploring the Algarve coast.

What you should know...

- The villa is arranged over multiple floors, including a lower-ground level, so it may not be suitable for guests with limited mobility.
- The pool does not have a safety fence or alarm system, so children should be supervised at all times.
