Location & Local Information

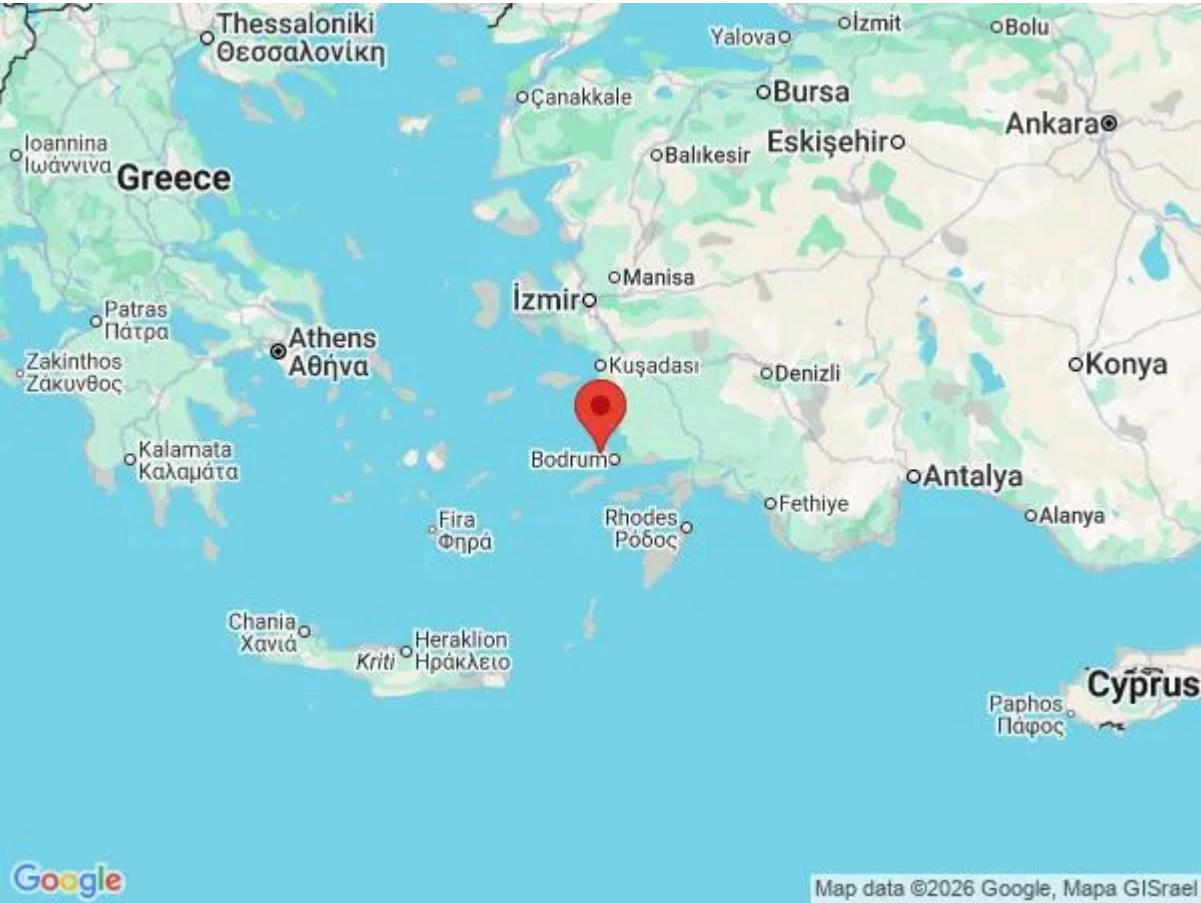

Tucked between the charming coastal towns of Yalikavak and Gümüşlük, Villa Evran enjoys a peaceful yet convenient setting on the Bodrum Peninsula. The area is known for its blend of laid-back village life and cosmopolitan touches. Just a short drive away is Yalikavak Marina, a lively hub where fishing boats share space with sleek yachts, and visitors can enjoy waterfront dining, boutique shopping, and a vibrant evening scene.

Nearby, Gümüşlük offers a more rustic charm with its quaint seaside restaurants, art galleries, and ancient ruins —remnants of the old city of Myndos, partially submerged beneath the clear waters. The area is ideal for leisurely strolls, exploring coastal trails, or enjoying freshly caught seafood by the water’s edge.

Daily essentials are within easy reach, with local markets, bakeries, and shops dotted around the surrounding villages. Whether you're after a quiet beach, a sunset cocktail, or a taste of Aegean heritage, this location offers a little something for everyone.

What we love

- The villa's infinity pool offers breathtaking sea views—perfect for a relaxing swim while watching the sunset.
- Just a short drive away from the lively Yalikavak Marina, where you can enjoy waterfront dining, boutique shopping, and yacht-watching.
- Gümüşlük's charming coastal village vibe, with ancient ruins, art galleries, and fresh seafood restaurants, creates a serene escape right on your doorstep.

What you should know...

- While the villa enjoys stunning sea views, it is not directly by the beach—be prepared for a short drive to reach the nearest coastal spots.
- The infinity pool does not have a fence, so young children should be supervised around the pool area at all times.
