

Villa Krista

Region: Turkey Sleeps: 10

Overview

Stepping into Villa Krista, you're greeted by a sense of relaxed charm and inviting comfort. This spacious home in Yalikavak offers a collection of well-appointed bedrooms, multiple kitchens, and a welcoming lounge, making it ideal for families or groups of friends. Four of the bedrooms feature double beds and air conditioning, while the fifth bedroom includes twin beds—perfect for varied sleeping arrangements. The villa is thoughtfully equipped with everyday essentials like Wi-Fi, satellite TV, a dishwasher, and even a desk for those needing a quiet workspace.

Outside, the villa opens onto a generous terrace with a private pool—crystal-clear and refreshing, though its depth means little ones should be supervised. The gardens are green and peaceful, with shaded nooks perfect for morning coffees or winding down at sunset.

Just a short distance away lies the heart of Yalikavak, a charming coastal town where the traditional rhythms of a fishing village meet the energy of a lively marina. You'll find bustling cafés, seafood restaurants, and boutique shops, along with the local bazaar's cheerful chaos. Villa Krista offers more than a place to stay—it's a gentle immersion into Bodrum's soul.

Location & Local Information

Nestled in the vibrant town of Yalikavak, Villa Krista offers the perfect balance of tranquillity and convenience. A short distance from the villa, you'll find the bustling Yalikavak Marina, a hub of life with its upscale restaurants, cafés, and shops. The local marina blends the charm of traditional fishing boats with sleek yachts, offering an intriguing glimpse into the area's history as a once-prominent fishing port. The town's cobbled streets are lined with a mix of modern establishments and local artisans, while the nearby weekly bazaars bring the flavours and colours of Bodrum's rich culture to life.

History lovers can explore the region's deep roots, from ancient Greek influences to its continued maritime significance. Beyond the marina, there are numerous walking paths, water sports, and beaches, ensuring that whether you're seeking adventure or relaxation, Yalikavak has something to offer just around the corner.

What we love

- The villa's private pool offers a refreshing escape with stunning views over the Aegean Sea, perfect for unwinding in style.
- A short stroll to Yalikavak Marina, where guests can enjoy a blend of traditional fishing charm and modern luxury, with plenty of cafés, restaurants, and shops.
- Explore the rich history of Yalikavak, where the town's deep maritime roots are still visible in its local markets and picturesque harbour.

What you should know...

- The pool has a depth of 2 metres, so children should be supervised at all times while swimming.
- The villa is located in a hillside area, which may require some walking up and down to reach the marina or nearby shops.
