

Villa Perihan

Region: Turkey Sleeps: 8

Overview

Tucked away just 5km from the heart of Yalikavak, Villa Perihan invites you into a home that feels more like a gentle escape than just a holiday let. Step through the doors, and you'll find four comfortable bedrooms, two with ensembles, a spacious lounge that opens onto the terrace, and a kitchen stocked with everything from a kettle to a dishwasher — even a separate kitchenette in the garden room. The décor leans toward relaxed elegance, with soft furnishings, air conditioning in every room, and a generous dining area perfect for gathering over long, leisurely meals.

Wander outside, and you'll step into a charming private garden dotted with sun loungers and a portable barbecue — the kind of place where hours slip by by the pool or under the shade of a parasol. The unheated pool sparkles in the sun, bordered by flowering shrubs and a peaceful terrace that wraps around the villa.

Set in the hills above Yalikavak, the villa offers a quiet spot with easy access to the town's beaches, restaurants, and traditional harbour. Surrounded by the Aegean's charm and a hint of sea breeze, Villa Perihan is a welcoming retreat that feels both secluded and connected.

Location & Local Information

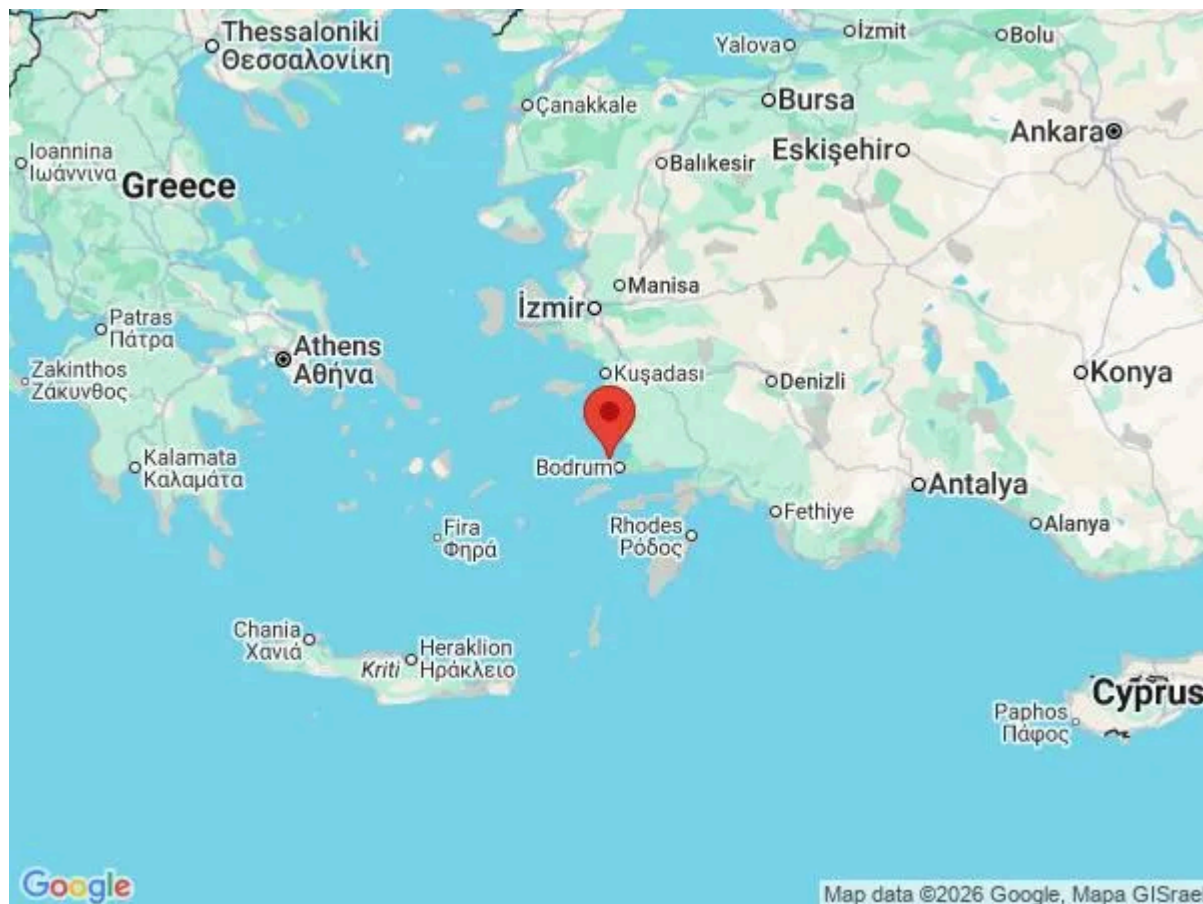

Villa Perihan is nestled just a short drive from the centre of Yalikavak, a coastal town that effortlessly blends old-world charm with contemporary flair. Once a modest fishing village, Yalikavak has grown into a lively yet tasteful hub known for its elegant marina, weekly markets, and laid-back café culture. Just minutes from the villa, you'll find supermarkets, local shops, and traditional bakeries, perfect for picking up fresh bread or a morning simit.

The town's shoreline offers a choice of beaches, from quiet coves to more vibrant spots with water sports and beachside dining. The lively marina, just ten minutes away, hosts boutique stores, open-air restaurants, and often live music in the evenings.

Yalikavak is also steeped in history — once famed for sponge diving, its heritage lingers in the old stone houses and the rhythm of fishing boats that still sail each morning. Whether you're after adventure, culture or calm, it's all within reach.

What we love

- The private garden and swimming pool offer a peaceful, secluded space for relaxing or enjoying al fresco dining under the stars.
- Just a short drive to the bustling Yalikavak Marina, where you can enjoy a mix of vibrant cafes, seafood restaurants, and boutique shopping with a scenic view of the Aegean.
- The charming blend of Yalikavak's traditional fishing heritage and modern attractions makes it an ideal spot for both exploration and relaxation, with plenty of local history to discover.

What you should know...

- The swimming pool is unheated, which may not be ideal for cooler months.
- The 4th bedroom is located in a separate annexe in the garden, providing more privacy but slightly less proximity to the main living areas.
- The property operates with a limited electricity usage of 300 kWh per week, with any excess charged against the damage deposit.
