

Maison Milka

Region: Provence-Alpes Sleeps: 10

Overview

Framed by olive trees, vines and pine-dappled hills, Maison Milka is a distinguished family home where the spirit of Provence is felt in every breeze and birdsong. This south-facing estate, nestled along the historic route between Saint-Rémy-de-Provence and Saint-Étienne-du-Grès, is a place of authenticity and charm—where shaded terraces, picturesque gardens, and artistic interiors invite moments both grand and intimate.

Set within vast landscaped grounds, the house is surrounded by mature pines, olive trees, plane trees and cypresses. A graceful stone fountain meanders through the garden, while the scent of wild herbs lingers in the warm air. Days here unfold in rhythm with the sun—whether relaxing by the Roman-style swimming pool, dining under the arcades of the summer terrace, or enjoying a game on the private tennis court.

Inside, the home offers five attractively appointed bedrooms, all air-conditioned, including a master double with its own pretty balcony. The ground floor features two comfortable guest rooms and a shower room, while the upper level houses three additional double bedrooms (including the master bedroom), each with private bathrooms. Back downstairs, the living areas are equally inviting - a spacious salon, elegant dining room and a well-equipped kitchen ready for Provençal feasts.

Maison Milka lies just a short drive from a little village with a restaurant and épicerie and mere moments from Saint-Rémy-de-Provence. The surrounding region is rich with discovery—historic Les Baux-de-Provence, the wild beauty of the Camargue, and the cultural riches of Avignon and Arles all within easy reach. Whether you're exploring the nearby hiking trails of Les Alpilles or relaxing in the Mediterranean light, this is Provence at its most authentic and captivating.

Location & Local Information

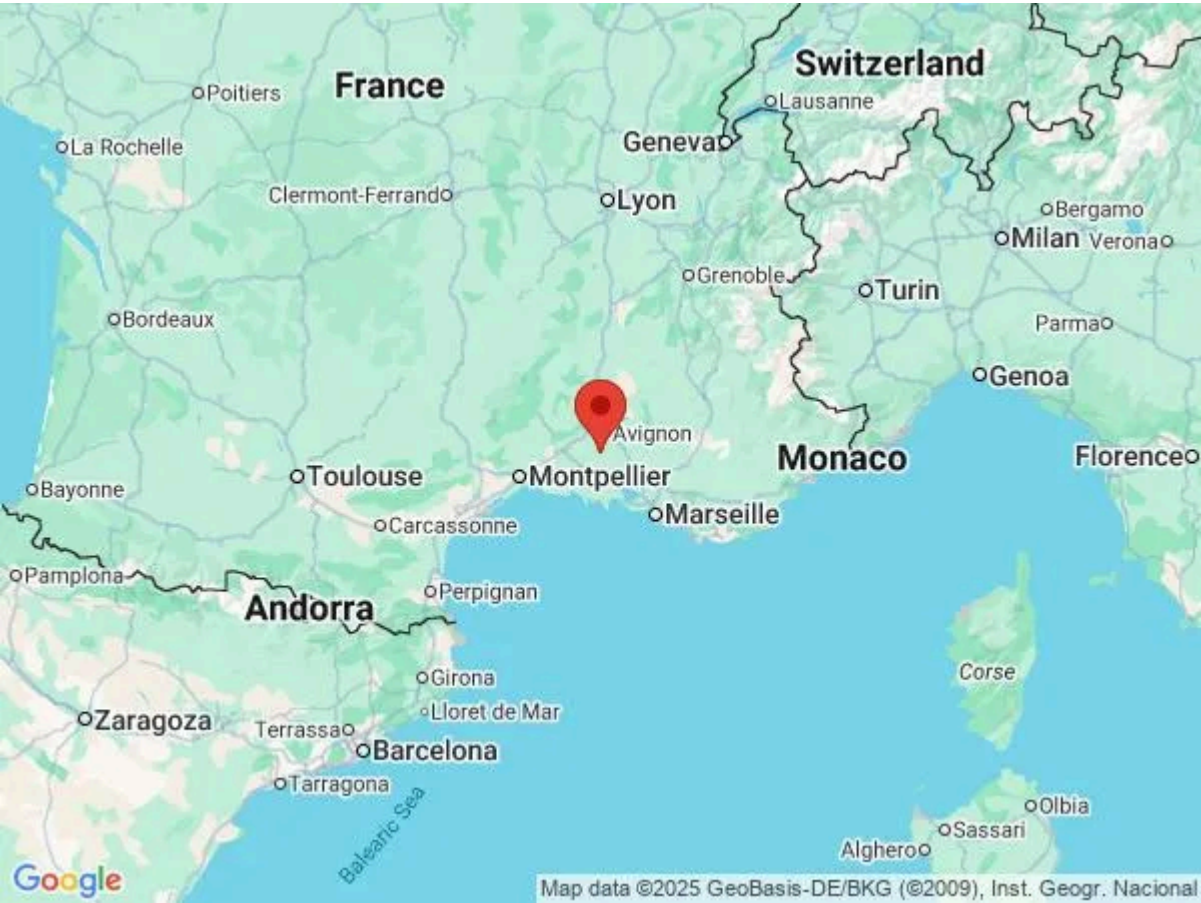

Maison Milka is set in beautiful and vast gardens between Saint-Rémy-de-Provence and Saint-Étienne-du-Grès, just over half an hour south of Avignon. A little village is a short drive away with an épicerie/tabac-bar and restaurant. The area is perfect for countryside strolls, wine tasting and cycling along scenic backroads lined with cypress trees.

Venture a little further to the famed town of Saint-Rémy-de-Provence (6km), beloved for its Wednesday morning market, café terraces, chic boutiques, and vibrant art scene—this was, after all, the place that inspired Van Gogh’s iconic works.

To the west, the twin towns of Tarascon (10km) and Beaucaire (11km) straddle the Rhône, each boasting a rich medieval heritage. Tarascon’s formidable château rises above the riverbanks, offering spectacular views and a journey into the region’s storied past, while Beaucaire’s cobbled streets and waterfront cafés exude timeless Provençal charm. Whether you're exploring ancient architecture or relaxing by the canal, both towns provide a captivating glimpse into life near the Rhône.

The wild beauty of Les Alpilles awaits just beyond, with limestone peaks, olive groves, and winding trails that reward hikers and nature-lovers alike. At its heart is the hilltop village of Les Baux-de-Provence (9km), perched dramatically on a rocky outcrop.

And of course, the majestic city of Avignon (28km) lies within easy reach—home to the Palais des Papes, the graceful Pont d’Avignon, and a summer arts festival renowned across Europe.
