Overview

Charlcombe Tent V is a tranquil canvas retreat tucked into a quiet corner of Bath's rolling hillside, where orchard trees sway and expansive views stretch across the Avon Valley. It's a place to slow down, breathe deeply, and embrace the calm that nature so effortlessly provides. Whether you're enjoying morning light filtering through the trees or listening to birdsong as the sun sets, the setting invites a deep sense of peace and presence.

Inside the spacious Lotus Belle tent, comfort and simplicity go hand in hand. A plush double bed, soft textiles, and warm ambient lighting create a cosy, restful space powered by solar and battery, with charging points for your essentials. Step outside to find your private hot shower, compost loo, and a fire pit perfect for stargazing. A picnic bench is there for slow breakfasts or relaxed evening meals among the wildflowers. Charlcombe Tent V offers a gentle, grounding escape for anyone seeking to disconnect from the rush and reconnect with the rhythms of the natural world.

Location & Local Information

Charlcombe Tent V sits within six acres of rewilded orchard just above the edge of Bath, offering sweeping views across the Avon Valley and a deep sense of calm. Though wonderfully secluded, it's only minutes from the city, allowing you to dip in and out of Bath's cultural delights while enjoying the stillness of the countryside.

Nature lovers will find plenty to explore, with direct access to National Walking Routes and ever-changing landscapes rich in wildlife. A scenic, car-free path leads to the nearby Hare & Hounds pub for relaxed dining with panoramic views, while Bath's historic Roman Baths, Thermae Spa, and vibrant cafés and shops are just a short trip away. Beyond the city, rolling hills, hidden trails, and characterful villages await, making Charlcombe Tent V a perfect base for balancing restful retreat with discovery.
