Villa Socca

Region: Grenada Sleeps: 12

Overview

Villa Socca, nestled just below Villa Sundara (https://www.oliverstravels.com/caribbean/grenada/villa-sundara/) and a stone's throw from the estate's stunning private beach, offers a tranquil retreat for up to twelve guests. The property features four spacious bedrooms, each with its own private entrance, ensuring maximum privacy for everyone. The two expansive top-floor suites are generously proportioned, offering breathtaking views, while the two ground-floor rooms open onto lush, beautifully landscaped gardens. All bedrooms are equipped with large en-suite bathrooms and additional outdoor showers for two, perfect for an invigorating start or end to the day.

Step outside to the inviting swimming pool, or relax on the private deck, which comfortably seats up to twenty people, ideal for al fresco dining or evening drinks. The Tiki kitchen and barbecue area offer the perfect setting for outdoor meals, while the fully equipped kitchen inside ensures all your needs are met. The sitting room opens directly onto the beach, blending indoor and outdoor living seamlessly.

Located just steps from Mount Hartman Bay, Villa Socca combines the natural beauty of Grenada with ample space and privacy, making it an ideal spot for families or groups seeking an unforgettable escape.

Location & Local Information

Villa Socca is ideally located on the peaceful and picturesque Mount Hartman Bay in Grenada, offering a serene escape with stunning views of the surrounding landscape. The estate is just a short drive from Maurice Bishop International Airport, ensuring easy access for international travellers. The local area is a haven of natural beauty, with pristine beaches, crystal-clear waters, and lush tropical greenery, perfect for outdoor activities.

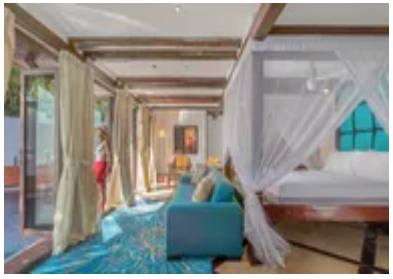

Grenada, known as the "Spice Isle," is famous for its spice plantations, including nutmeg, cocoa, and cinnamon. Visitors can explore the local markets, where these spices are sold, or take a tour of the island's historical sites, such as Fort George and the capital, St. George's. The area also offers numerous opportunities for water sports, including snorkelling, diving, and sailing, as well as hiking through the island's scenic rainforests. Whether you're looking for adventure or relaxation, Villa Socca offers the perfect base to experience the best of Grenada.
