

Villa Sagrada

Region: Galicia Sleeps: 11

Overview

Set in a tranquil natural environment on Galicia's northern coast, Villa Sagrada is a beautifully restored 19th-century home that seamlessly blends historic charm with luxurious modern living. Originally built in 1890 and recently refurbished with sustainable, high-quality materials, this unique villa sleeps up to 11 guests and offers the perfect setting for a peaceful escape with family or friends.

Surrounded by a 1,600 m² garden, the villa enjoys sweeping views of the Atlantic Ocean and is just a 5-minute walk from a golden sandy beach with crystal-clear waters. The outdoor area features a saline, aerothermal heated infinity pool, a chill-out area with sofas and hammocks, a barbecue zone, and an outdoor dining space – ideal for soaking up sunsets and long summer evenings.

Inside, the living space is light-filled and contemporary, with a glazed lounge offering panoramic sea views. A striking avant-garde fireplace separates the living area from the designer kitchen, which features a pearl venata quartzite island, antique gas fire, steam oven, and a grand 19th-century dining table. A pellet stove adds warmth and character.

The villa offers five beautifully designed sleeping areas across three floors. These include a master suite with a king-size bed and open-plan bathroom, three double bedrooms with sea views, and a lower-level lounge with smart TV, bathroom, laundry facilities, and three single beds – perfect for children.

Additional features include private parking, Wi-Fi, and accessibility for reduced mobility. Located close to the picturesque towns of Ares and Redes, and just 45 minutes from La Coruña, Villa Sagrada is an exce
