

Dimora Sabion

Region: Veneto Sleeps: 12

Overview

Step into a world of rich heritage and layered storytelling at Dimora Sabion, a stunning Venetian residence nestled in the refined Dorsoduro district. Once a modest homestead, this remarkable property has been transformed into a grand, characterful home that balances reverence for the past with exuberant creativity. The home sprawls across three floors, with five ensuite bedrooms and an internal lift, a rare Venetian feature, making it an elegant choice for groups or families.

Enter through a private calle into a series of spaces so intricately curated, they feel like a living gallery. From the sea-green vaulted sitting room with museum-worthy artwork to the dining room glowing under Murano chandeliers, each room tells its own tale. The crowning jewel? A sun-drenched private courtyard with leafy plantings, antique mirrors, and hidden echoes of the past.

Location & Local Information

Dimora Sabion enjoys a prestigious setting in Dorsoduro, a refined and cultural district beloved for its elegance and tranquillity. Tucked within a peaceful walking route just off the Zattere waterfront, the property is a stone's throw from some of Venice's most celebrated institutions, including the Guggenheim, Punta della Dogana, Palazzo Cini, and the Accademia Bridge.

Stroll along the wide, sunlit fondamenta and you'll discover chic galleries, artisanal boutiques, and a thriving culinary scene – from fine-dining hotspots like Ai Gondolieri to the buzzing cicchetti bars favoured by locals, such as Cantinone Gia Schiavi. The area is also well-served by amenities: two Conad supermarkets are within walking distance, and four vaporetto stops offer effortless links to the rest of the city, including a five-minute hop to St. Mark's Square.

What we love

- A private internal lift, a rare and convenient feature for a Venetian home of this scale!
- Striking interiors filled with artwork, antiques and bespoke design details curated with flair.
- The walled courtyard garden, a tranquil, sunlit sanctuary hidden away from view!

What you should know...

- While all floors are accessible by lift, there are steps between some internal levels and outdoor areas.
- One of the bedrooms is set on the ground floor with its own entrance, ideal for privacy but slightly separate from the main living spaces.
