Overview

Experience a wonderful stay in Provence at this magnificent stone-built villa, a high-end holiday home that embodies both refined elegance and authenticity, a short drive from the hilltop charm of Gordes.

Set within a landscaped garden, Cachet D'Olive has been thoughtfully designed to deliver premium comfort alongside timeless character. Traditional tiled roofing and authentic stonework offer a striking first impression, while the villa's stylish interiors invite you to indulge in modern living with ease.

This holiday abode boasts four generously proportioned bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bath or shower room – perfect for families or groups seeking both comfort and privacy. At the heart of the home lies an expansive open-plan living and dining space, where French windows lead seamlessly onto a pretty terrace. An attractive kitchen completes the social hub of the house, while a dedicated fitness room caters to your well-being throughout your stay. With air conditioning throughout, comfort is assured no matter the season.

Outside, you'll find an idyllic setting crafted for leisurely days and al-fresco evenings. The swimming pool is perfect for relaxing afternoons, and the adjacent sun terrace offers ample space to unwind with a book or a glass of local rosé. A shaded summer kitchen provides a scenic spot for outdoor dining, while the pétanque court adds a touch of Provençal tradition to your holiday rituals.

Ideally positioned just 5km from the celebrated hilltop village of Gordes, the villa offers access to one of France's most iconic destinations. In Gordes, wander cobbled lanes lined with stone houses, sample fine dining in local restaurants, or browse artisanal boutiques.

The surrounding Luberon region is a paradise of lavender fields, vineyards and sun-dappled landscapes – an inspiration for artists and a haven for outdoor explorers. Other gems within a short drive include L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue for antiques and waterwheels, Lagnes for canoeing or tree-top adventures and Fontaine-de-Vaucluse for incredible hiking trails.

Whether you're seeking cultural immersion or pure relaxation, this villa places you in the heart of it all.

Location & Local Information

On the edge of the Luberon region, only 5km from the picture-perfect village of Gordes, Cachet D'Olive is in the Vaucluse department of southern France. Located on a residential lane in the countryside, it's only 2.5km to Cabrières-d'Avignon for your nearest bakery and restaurant.

Discover further amenities including good-sized supermarkets and lovely shops in nearby Coustellet (3.5km). The village is especially vibrant on Sunday mornings when its famed farmers' market springs to life with colourful stalls of local honey, lavender, fruit, and cheese. It's also home to the Lavender Museum, an ode to the region's iconic bloom, perfect for families and culture lovers alike.

A short drive leads you to Gordes (5km), one of the Luberon's most celebrated hilltop villages, classified as one of France's 'Plus Beaux Villages'. Its dramatic cliffside position, honey-toned stone buildings, and the impressive Sénanque Abbey surrounded by lavender fields make it an unmissable highlight. Don't miss the delightful market on a Tuesday morning.

Explore further into the Golden Triangle of the Luberon and you'll discover the atmospheric lanes of Ménerbes (9km), the medieval charm of Oppède-le-Vieux (9km), and the ochre-tinted beauty of Roussillon (13km), famed for its dramatic red cliffs and winding trails through the pine trees. Each village brings a distinct flavour, whether it's the wine estates of Ménerbes or the artisan studios tucked into Roussillon's pastel façades. Outdoor enthusiasts can enjoy hiking, cycling, or leisurely drives through olive groves, vineyards, and pine forests that stretch across this protected natural park.

No trip to the area is complete without visiting L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue (13km), the "Venice of Provence", known for its antique shops, art galleries, and picturesque canals. Nearby, Fontaine-de-Vaucluse (14km) offers a magical setting where the Sorgue River bubbles forth from the depths of a limestone cliff, the perfect spot for kayaking, hiking or riverside picnics.
