Overview

Drifting through the dappled shade of towering palms and past thatched rooftops, Villa Pepé welcomes guests into a home where nature and architecture speak the same language. Hidden within the verdant Tortuga Bay enclave of Punta Cana Resort & Club, this seven-bedroom retreat is an ode to sustainable design, where coral stone, exotic timber and open-air living conspire to craft a space that's both grounding and refined.

Inside, earthy textures and bold Caribbean hues bring warmth and vitality to expansive social spaces. The open-plan double-height lounge, anchored by swinging hammocks, natural wood beams, and a hand-tiled floor, offers a breezy connection to the gardens beyond. A media snug and dedicated home theatre invite slow, cosy evenings, while the sleek kitchen and alfresco barbecue zone provide everything needed for relaxed group dining.

Outside, a wide sun-washed terrace surrounds a striking rectangular pool fringed by lush greenery. Stretch out on a lounger beneath the palm-fringed canopy, or retreat to a hammock in the shade, tropical drink in hand. The outdoor lounge areas and colourful garden corners are made for idling.

Positioned just moments from La Cana Golf Course and Punta Cana's most celebrated beaches, Villa Pepé feels both wildly tropical and perfectly placed, an immersive escape for sun-chasers, design lovers, and dreamers alike.
