Villa Youco

Region: Punta Cana & Cap Cana Sleeps: 16

Overview

At Villa Youco, barefoot elegance meets effortless island charm. You arrive beneath rustling palms and thatched rooftops, greeted by the soothing sound of water and the scent of salt on the breeze. Inside, the open-plan living space is cool and calming, with stone floors, natural materials, and large glass doors inviting the outdoors in. The villa features six spacious bedrooms, a gym, a cinema room, and a full kitchen, perfect for family gatherings or a week away with friends.

Step outside and the magic unfolds. Curved terraces frame a shimmering pool with a hot tub and swim-up bar, flanked by hanging loungers and wide lawns made for barefoot games or quiet sunbathing. Palapa-covered pavilions provide shade for long lunches and lazy afternoons.

Nestled within the prestigious Cap Cana resort, the villa overlooks lush fairways of the Punta Espada golf course and sits moments from white sands and clear waters. Whether you're reclining in the breeze or entertaining beneath the stars, this is Caribbean living in its purest form.

Location & Local Information

Located within the prestigious Cap Cana resort on the eastern coast of the Dominican Republic, Villa Youco is perfectly placed for a relaxed yet activity-rich escape. The villa overlooks the Jack Nicklaus-designed Punta Espada Golf Course, widely regarded as one of the Caribbean's finest, offering a lush, tranquil backdrop with sea glimpses beyond.

Guests can stroll or cycle to Juanillo Beach and Api Beach, where white sands meet turquoise waters and beach bars beckon. The nearby marina bustles with life and is a hub for water sports, fishing excursions, and fine dining. Cap Cana also offers an equestrian centre, tennis courts, ecological trails, and the Scape Park adventure park. With a name that means "Cape Cane," Cap Cana is rooted in its colonial past but has transformed into a serene, world-class retreat. You'll find boutique shopping, gourmet restaurants, and even historic sugar mills and caves scattered throughout this idyllic corner of the island.
