

Villa Alata 1

Region: Turkey Sleeps: 7

Overview

Villa Alata 1 offers a private accommodation option with a sea view. This modern rental villa includes three bedrooms and can host up to seven guests, including children. It is well-suited for two families or groups of friends seeking a shared space. Located a short drive from Yalikavak Marina, the property is furnished with a focus on comfort and practicality, aiming to create a homely atmosphere for guests. The design and layout are intended to meet various needs during a short or extended stay.

At the entrance of the villa, there is a private parking area with space for two vehicles. From this point, guests can access both the main entrance of the house and the private garden and swimming pool area.

The villa is laid out over two levels. On the first floor, there is a bedroom with a double bed and en-suite bathroom, which also includes a washer and dryer. Another bedroom on this level features two single beds and an en-suite bathroom. Both rooms offer views of the sea and sunset.

The lower floor includes an additional double bedroom with an en-suite bathroom and a scenic view. This floor also features an open-plan living area, a fully equipped kitchen, and a dining space. Guests can directly access the garden and swimming pool area from this level, as well as a patio that provides a suitable space for morning coffee or outdoor relaxation.

Location & Local Information

Yalıkavak is a picturesque coastal town on the northwestern shores of the Bodrum Peninsula in southwestern Turkey. Historically a quaint fishing village, Yalıkavak has grown into one of the most sophisticated and sought-after destinations in the region, known for blending traditional charm with modern luxury. It is part of the Muğla Province, and just a 20-minute drive from the bustling town of Bodrum, making it both secluded and conveniently located.

The heart of Yalıkavak is its marina, which is among the most prestigious marinas in the Mediterranean. It caters to luxury yachts from around the world and is surrounded by upscale restaurants, designer boutiques, and vibrant nightlife spots. Despite this modern edge, Yalıkavak retains its authentic Turkish character, with a charming old town featuring cobbled streets, local markets, and traditional tea gardens.

Yalıkavak’s natural beauty is equally compelling. The town is nestled between rolling hills and the turquoise waters of the Aegean Sea. Visitors and residents alike enjoy stunning sea views, pristine beaches, and scenic walking trails. The surrounding countryside is dotted with ancient ruins, olive groves, and windmills, offering a peaceful retreat from urban life.

Tourism thrives year-round, especially during the summer months. The town hosts cultural events, music festivals, and art exhibitions, drawing an international crowd. Its combination of glamour, history, and natural beauty makes Yalıkavak a standout destination on the Turkish Riviera.

What we love

- With three en-suite bedrooms and generous indoor and outdoor living areas, the villa comfortably accommodates families or groups of up to seven guests.
- Guests can enjoy a private swimming pool, garden, and patio area—ideal for relaxing, dining outdoors, or soaking in the surroundings in complete privacy.
- Situated just a short drive from Yalikavak Marina, the villa offers easy access to dining, shopping, and coastal attractions while remaining in a quiet, residential setting.

What you should know...

- While the villa is close to Yalikavak Marina, it still requires a short drive, which may be less convenient for guests without a car or those who prefer walking access to shops and restaurants.
- The duplex design and outdoor stairs may pose challenges for guests with mobility issues, as there may be limited accessibility for wheelchair users or elderly guests.
- The nearly identical Villa Alata 2 next door is a perfect choice for families or friends travelling in larger groups
