Overview

Located in picture-perfect Eygalières, Maison Hugo offers a rare blend of village charm and understated elegance. Surrounded by the soft hum of Provençal life, this attractive 4-bedroom villa exudes an air of sophistication, where every detail has been considered to provide a characterful stay for up to 8 guests.

The house combines spacious interiors with inviting corners. The ground floor unfolds into a generous living room with a wood-beamed ceiling and French doors that open onto the landscaped garden. A beautifully appointed kitchen, with sleek appliances and a convivial dining table, leads out to the shaded terrace ideal for leisurely outdoor meals. An en suite double bedroom on this level also features direct garden access.

Upstairs, the layout continues to impress. The main bedroom with its king-size double enjoys its own south-west facing balcony, while two additional en suite bedrooms offer flexibility with twin beds that can be joined. Every bath/shower room is finished with considered attention, combining modern fittings with Provençal touches.

Outdoors, the house opens onto an enclosed garden where Mediterranean planting softens the stone architecture. Al-fresco living is effortless here with a 10m-long heated swimming pool and a covered terrace with a dining table, plancha grill and relaxed seating area.
