

Villa Cleope

Region: Tuscany Sleeps: 14

Overview

Villa Cleope is a seven-bedroom villa on an estate in the heart of Tuscany's Maremma region, offering a perfect balance of timeless elegance and refined comfort. Sleeping up to 14 guests, this stunning retreat is set within beautifully landscaped grounds and combines traditional Tuscan architecture with modern amenities.

The main villa boasts a spacious living area with an impressive stone fireplace and rich, textured furnishings, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. The open-plan layout flows seamlessly into the dining room and extends out to the patio, making it ideal for indoor-outdoor living. The chef's kitchen is fully equipped with professional appliances and designed to inspire culinary creativity. Three elegant double bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms are located in the main house, while four more en-suite bedrooms are found in the garden-facing annexe. All bedrooms have air conditioning and direct garden access.

Outside, a large swimming pool with a furnished lounge area and alfresco dining spaces offer perfect spots for relaxation. A wood-fired oven and barbecue invite long evenings under the stars, while a vegetable garden and chicken coop provide fresh daily produce. Guests can unwind in the private sauna and wellness area or stay active in the indoor gym. Villa Cleope is a sanctuary where nature, design, and hospitality come together in perfect harmony.

Location & Local Information

Villa Cleope, nestled within an estate in the Maremma region of Tuscany, is a superb holiday destination just an hour from Rome airport. It's perfectly positioned between pristine coastal stretches, the charming hilltop village of Capalbio, and unique attractions like the Tarot Garden and the WWF Oasis of Lake Burano.

Guests can enjoy a wide range of activities, including wine tasting in the Morellino di Scansano vineyards and discovering local farm shops and artisanal products such as cheeses, honey, and cured meats. Those fond of nature can explore the Parco Regionale della Maremma by foot, bike, horseback, canoe, or even donkey—from Mediterranean scrub to dramatic coastal landscapes.

Top nearby experiences include Scarlino's adventure park and horseback riding excursions to castles or Cala Violina. Beach lovers will find award-winning Blue Flag coasts in Castiglione della Pescaia and secluded coves on Monte Argentario or take a ferry trip to Giglio Island. Culture seekers can visit Etruscan and Roman ruins or explore the Natural History Museum in Grosseto.

Culinary traditions are rich: taste Tuscan classics like Tortelli maremmani, fresh seafood along the coast, and local wines paired with bruschetta, olive oil, and cured meats in family-run trattorias. Villa Cleope invites guests into a tapestry of Tuscany's natural beauty, historic charm, and gastronomic delights.

What we love

- A harmonious blend of rustic architecture and refined interiors, Villa Cleope, features exposed stone, arched doorways and a grand fireplace — all enhanced by modern comforts like air conditioning and smart TVs.
- The landscaped grounds feature a large swimming pool, an elegant patio with lounge and dining areas, and a wood-fired pizza oven.
- A private sauna, dedicated wellness area, and indoor gym invite guests to relax and recharge throughout their stay.
- A working vegetable garden and chicken coop offer fresh eggs and seasonal produce, bringing a farm-to-table feel to every meal.

What you should know...

- We recommend hiring a car to explore this beautiful region.
- Although family-friendly, children should be supervised around the pool at all times due to the natural rocks surrounding it.
