From the villa, enjoy access to Cap Nègre beach a short walk away (via steps) – an idyllic sandy bay with clear sea, perfect for swimming, snorkelling and sunbathing. Even in the height of the summer, this bay is usually less crowded than others in the area as it can only be accessed via the domaine or by sea.

A little inland, the enchanting village of Bormes-les-Mimosas (12km) bursts into bloom with its famous mimosa trees and offers a maze of flower-filled streets, art galleries and artisan boutiques.

To the east, Cavalaire-sur-Mer (13km) tempts with its lively marina, vibrant summer atmosphere and long sandy beach ideal for families. A scenic drive further brings you to Plage de Gigaro (20km), a pristine beach edged by protected pine forests and ideal for walkers following the coastal path, or head to La Croix Valmer (18km), where wine lovers can savour local vintages at elegant hillside estates with sweeping views over the sea.

For a glamorous day out, the iconic town of Saint-Tropez (30km) is under an hour away. Stroll its cobbled lanes, explore the chic boutiques or discover the legendary Plage de Pampelonne (32km), where beach clubs, fine dining and watersports await.
