This is such a beautiful and privileged setting with access to a gorgeous shared swimming pool and a little beach below with turquoise coloured water.

Step inside Casa Bergamotto to find air-conditioned interiors shaped by the artistic vision of two sisters who are renowned designers - their expertise is visible in every lovingly curated corner. Each bedroom features a queen-size double bed alongside traditional décor and pretty fabrics. The living-dining room with satellite TV and a delightful open kitchen, well-equipped with everything you should need, is just as inviting and characterful.

Imagine mornings on your private terrace with your coffee and a sea view – warm croissants and fresh bread are delivered daily or you can order a more lavish Italian breakfast with local honey, fruit, cheese and cured meat. As evening nears, it's possible to arrange tasting menus or Michelin starred experiences at your home – other services that can be organised include cookery classes, boat tours, porterage and more.

Across the steep flowering grounds, admire lemon and olive trees as you discover the rugged paths and steps leading to the shared swimming pool and small sandy beach below. In the height of the summer, a beach bar is set up on the side of the bay.

When it's time to leave your gated compound, wander into the heart of Positano, the jewel of Italy's Amalfi Coast. This world-renowned village, with its cascade of pastel houses, winding stairways and vibrant cultural life, is just moments away on foot. Location & Local Information

Casa Bergamotto enjoys a beautiful setting on the edge of Positano, part of a gated complex with four other residences set across a cliffside with the most incredible sea views. You access the grounds on foot from the coastal road above, then follow the steep paths and steps down to your casa. All guests at the complex enjoy private access to a little sandy bay, reached via rugged steps, an idyllic spot with sand and crystal-clear water (and a beach bar in the height of the summer). This is such a privileged location and so close to the heart of Positano.

Step outside the complex and within moments you can be wandering Positano's steep postcard-perfect lanes, with their pastel houses, boutique shops and cascading bougainvillaea. Make your way down to Spiaggia di Positano (750m), the town's main beach, where colourful umbrellas line the shore in the height of the summer and chic beach clubs offer cocktails with a view. For a more secluded setting, Fornillo Beach (1.2km) is just a short distance west, offering a laid-back vibe and usually fewer crowds.

From the harbour at Positano, boat trips offer a thrilling way to experience the Amalfi Coast. Cruise along the dramatic coastline, visit hidden coves and sea caves, or sail across to the island of Capri for a day of glamour and exploration. Back on land, hiking enthusiasts will love the nearby Sentiero degli Dei (Path of the Gods), a breathtaking trail that winds high above the coast, offering panoramic views and unforgettable scenery.

Casa Bergamotto also makes a wonderful base for exploring the jewels of the Amalfi Coast. The charming village of Praiano, the historic town of Amalfi, and the hilltop splendour of Ravello are all fantastic trips. Each offers its own slice of local life, from Ravello's music festivals and gardens to Amalfi's grand cathedral and bustling piazzas.

If you're looking to venture further, day trips to Sorrento are easily arranged - Sorrento's historic centre, lemon-scented lanes and clifftop views are an absolute delight.
