Location & Local Information

Villa Piana is set in the coastal village of Duće, just outside the historic town of Omiš. With beaches, cafés, and shops within walking distance, the villa provides easy access to daily essentials and seaside relaxation. However, it's worth noting that the return journey involves an uphill walk, which may be challenging for guests with mobility concerns.

The nearby town of Omiš, a 5-minute drive away, is a lively hub renowned for its fortress ruins, river canyon, and a range of adventure activities, including ziplining, rafting, and climbing. For day trips, Split's UNESCO-listed old town is just 25km away, and boat excursions to the islands or Biokovo Nature Park are easily arranged. Whether you're planning laid-back beach days or outdoor exploration, Villa Piana's location offers a practical blend of convenience and coastal charm, set against a dramatic mountain backdrop.

What we love

- The private pool and separate hot tub offer two tempting ways to unwind, whether you're sun-soaked or stargazing.
- All four bedrooms come with en-suite bathrooms and king-size beds, ideal for groups wanting a bit of privacy.
- It's a short stroll to the beach, shops and restaurants (just be ready for the walk back uphill!).

What you should know...

- The villa is located on a hillside, the walk back from the beach or shops may be steep for some, particularly those with mobility issues.
- A car is recommended for exploring Omiš, Split, and the wider Dalmatian coast, however please note that roads can be narrow and steep around Omis, we recommend hiring an automatic.
- There's a sofa bed in the media room, but it's best suited to children or teens rather than adults.
