Location & Local Information

Saint-Rémy-de-Provence is a town of timeless charm and cobbled lanes – the heart of the historic centre is only 800m away on foot with its restaurants, art galleries and Wednesday morning market. Surrounded by ancient plane trees and traditional shuttered houses, Saint-Rémy is a place where every corner whispers stories of history, art and bustling Provençal life. A favourite of artists and dreamers, including Van Gogh who painted many of his masterpieces here, Saint-Rémy is also a gateway to the natural wonders of Les Alpilles.

The rugged limestone peaks of Les Alpilles rise dramatically beyond the town, offering an outdoor playground of hiking, cycling, and scenic drives. Olive groves and vineyards paint the landscape in hues of green and gold, while hiking trails invite walkers to uncover panoramic vistas and hidden chapels. Whether you're exploring on foot or by e-bike, the region's pastoral beauty is utterly captivating.

Charming villages dot the nearby hillsides, each with its own unique character. Les Baux-de-Provence (9km), perched high on a rocky outcrop, dazzles with its medieval ruins and immersive art displays at Carrières des Lumières (8.5km). Eygalières (13km) enchants with its sleepy stone streets, high-end restaurants and Friday morning market, while Maussane-les-Alpilles (9.5km) is another delight for food lovers, home to some of the region's finest olive oils and relaxed bistros.

For those drawn to wider horizons, Arles (25km) and the Camargue beckon. Discover Roman amphitheatres, vibrant Provençal markets and the wild beauty of flamingo-filled wetlands and white horses roaming free. A little further afield, the awe-inspiring Roman aqueduct of Le Pont du Gard (40km) makes an unforgettable day trip, while the cultural treasures of Avignon (22km) or the antique-laden streets of L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue (33km) offer yet more layers of Provençal charm.

- The tennis court is actually a half court as well as a multi-sports court for volleyball, handball, football or basketball.
- It's a fairly straightforward walk to central Saint-Rémy - parts of the route do not have a pavement but you can detour via the nearby canal path before walking up the main tree-lined road (with a pavement) to the historic centre.
